County Purchasing Agent Frank J. Hughes is dangerously ill at his home in Selwyn Terrace. There was a slight change for the better on Monday, but it was admitted by his physician that a relapse might occur. Mr. Hughes has shown strong rallying powers in sickness and friends are hoping that he will exhibit the same strength this time.

Mr. Hughes began public life five years ago with his appointment as secretary to the public safety commissioner. He served until the last election, when he ran ahead of the rest of the Republican ticket and became purchasing agent. Pulmonary disorders set in a week later, before Mr. Hughes had a chance to acquaint himself with his new duties. He has been in bed two weeks.
