Men's and Boy's Sample Sweaters

Just about every man and boy requires a sweater. Coat of some sort.

The use to which the sweater coat may be put by various individuals may be very different, but it doesn't change the need. One man wants a sweater to slip under his overcoat in an automobile. Another one wants it essentially for outing purposes. Another man whose employment takes him out of doors in all sorts of weather wants a sweater for general service.

At Special Counter in Aisle F we have something like 250 sweaters to-day which will meet all sorts of needs and conditions. There are men's sweaters, and there are boys' sweaters. This lot is made up of agents' and manufacturers' samples. They are worsted plated, and all wool garments. They are oxford, maroon, navy and a few white. There are necks; there are Byron collars, and there are shirt collars.

The least saving there is on any of them is a figure a full quarter; from that up to a third or more of the usual cost.

The men's sweaters are priced at $1.47, $1.97, $2.47, $2.97, $3.47, $3.97, and $4.47.

In the lot at $4.47, there are sweaters worth up to $7.50.

Boys' sweaters range in price from 67c to $1.00.
