Woman's World

Mrs. Ralph Pulitzer Fairy Godmother to "Newsies."

MRS. RALPH PULITZER.
Mrs. Ralph Pulitzer, wife of the editor of the New York World, is playing the part of fairy godmother to the newsboys of the metropolis. Mrs. Pulitzer, who is a daughter of Dr. Seward Webb and a granddaughter of the late William H. Vanderbilt, is the originator of a scheme for the social betterment of the "newsies." She is chairman of a committee to raise funds for the erection of a clubhouse for the little fellows who earn their living by selling papers in the streets. Mrs. Pulitzer proposes to give these youngsters a common home where they can get the right kind of enjoyment out of life, and she hopes similar movements will be taken up in other cities.

SUMMER MILLINERY.

Wheat Sprouts on Many Smart Hats.

A WHEAT TRIMMED CREATION.
Every fruit, vegetable and cereal comes in for its turn in the sartorial world. This year apples, tomatoes and wheat are the favorites. The wheat trimmed hat pictured is a charming creation for midsummer wear, and it is distinctive in that the color scheme is confined to one tone, a novelty amid the many and wonderful combinations of colors seen on most chapeaux.

Nasturtiums For Bare Spots.
Plant nasturtiums wherever there is a bare spot in your garden; plant them wherever you think there is going to be a bare spot. They are among the earliest grown of flowers, and their showy blossoms, which flower until frost, can be used for cut flowers for the house all through the summer. One gardener always plants nasturtiums about her hollyhocks. When she cuts down the stalks of the hollyhocks after the flowers have passed by a piano player, fancy dancer or elocutionist can earn considerable money by plants strong and her flowers big, the applying early in the spring to proper nasturtiums are just ready to demand every inch of ground in sight, for after engaged to entertain their guests. One they pass their babyhood nasturtium educationist who teaches a dramatic school in the water spends her vacation weeks more they begin to bloom profitably in this way at a differ and cover what would otherwise be empty summer resort each year. She has bare spots in the garden with rioting her choice of a room and board at the hotels in exchange for her services or of receiving a salary and rooming and boarding elsewhere. She does not remove the bulbs. As she is a dainty, refined, fascinating and well educated little woman, she makes many friends each summer among the wealthy guests and returns to her classes each autumn greatly benefited in health, besides being richer in friends.

Entertains at Summer Resort.
Any girl who is talented as a singer, a piano player, fancy dancer or elocutionist can earn considerable money by plants strong and her flowers big, the applying early in the spring to proper nasturtiums are just ready to demand every inch of ground in sight, for after engaged to entertain their guests. One they pass their babyhood nasturtium educationist who teaches a dramatic school in the water spends her vacation weeks more they begin to bloom profitably in this way at a differ and cover what would otherwise be empty summer resort each year. Beatrice Herford's Geography.
There's another Beatrice Herford story going the rounds just now. The story goes that on a recent visit to London Miss Herford was one night allotted a very famous geographer as her dinner partner. He proved extremely agreeable and had much to tell her of certain charming out of the way English villages unknown to the American tourist. "Do you happen to know a little place called Winkle?" asked Miss Herford innocently. "Winkle, Winkle," repeated the great geographer. "Hum, ha, no, I don't seem to remember any place named Winkle." "Well, that's as near as I can come to the pronunciation of it," pursued Miss Herford. "It is spelled, W-I-N-K-L-E." "Don't you hope for his own sake he was 'quick on the uptake' with a sense of humor as big as his reputation?"

The Futurist Fan.
A new place has been found for the distinctive bunch of futurist flowers. They have been used at the corsage on the hat, at the belt and on the neck ruff. Behold them now fastened partly to net, lace or ivory fan. They are effective, too, the gaudy stiff flowers against the dainty white fan. They are generally caught about the stems to the outside stick of the fan, and one of the flowers is fastened securely in place farther along the stick. Arranged in this manner they do not interfere with the opening and shutting of the fan.

Hints For the Cook.
Salt tends to darken cabbage, cauliflower or brussels sprouts. The cauliflower and cabbage in a piece of cheesecloth. It is then easy to handle and keeps its shape. Slice a eggplant with a silver knife. Always wash a dozen pea pods to cook with the peas. This gives them a better flavor. Peas are delicious when cooked in the pod. The pods burst open and rise to the top; the peas settle to the bottom. Vegetables thoroughly ventilated while cooking are thought to be more wholesome and of better flavor. Vegetables should not be cooked in an iron kettle. Cook vegetables as soon after gathering as possible. Cook dandelions, spinach, green peas, cauliflower, cabbage and brussels sprouts uncovered.

The Useful Stool.
Many women have found that it is much wiser to sit down to work at such tasks as washing dishes, preparing vegetables and even ironing. Hurling strawberries, grating various materials, etc., all become pleasant and easy tasks if done sitting down. A high office stool should be in every kitchen. It can be slipped under the sink or the kitchen table and relieves the strain from many tasks. Such a stool can be bought for about $1.25. It is generally too high, but a few inches taken from each leg will suit it to your individual needs.

WEDDING RINGS AND GRADUATION PRESENTS
That's the June question—and Burritt has the answer.
In graduation gifts the choice is unlimited, in range and price—from rings or brooches, at almost any price, for the girl, to a watch, for the boy. In wedding rings, the choice is limited by custom to the plain gold band, preferably of Tiffany design.
But "get off Main Street" and see Burritt, first.
Why don't Ganzel bring his "Hustlers" down and join "Burritt's 13 Club?" It's cheaper than buying players, and will sidetrack any "Tinx." It's been proven.
