City Parish News

Interesting Budget of Happenings Gathered by Our City Reporter OUR LADY OF VICTORY.

Our beloved pastor, Rev. Father Notebaert returned from abroad on Monday, June 9, and was cordially welcomed by parishioners and friends. On his visit to the school the following day, exercises were held in his honor. An address of welcome from the advanced class was delivered by Miss Winifred Ger-tin and the primary department was represented by Dora Babeux, Blanche Matthys, Marcella De Volder, Maurice Meyvis, Omer Vandecastille and Joseph Lusardi, who recited the following verses written for the occasion.

Rev. A. A. Notebaert

Dear Father, you are welcome
Back to our school once more;
Back to the spot you ne'er forgot
As you wandered from shore to shore.

We followed you, in spirit,
Across the ocean blue,
And joyed at your arrival
Among friends tried and true.
Then on to Lourdes you hastened
With throngs from every nation,
To offer prayer and praise,
With deepest veneration.
You've come home richly laden
With gifts our Mother sent,
To us, her little children,
And so we are content.
To strive and study ever,
With steady minds and clear,
To please our loving pastor
And all our teachers dear.

To serve our "Lady of Victory"
More faithfully than ever,
With love and deep affection
No time nor tide can sever.

The exercises closed with the singing of "Holy God," and the presentation of a card from Lourdes to each child.

The marriage of Miss Emma Bertha Holderer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Holderer of Clifford Ave., and Joseph Lawrence Agram was solemnized at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning at the church. Nuptial high mass was celebrated by Rev. M. J. Har-gather assisted by Rev. Lowenkamp, C. S. S. R., Rev. J. Bairl and Rev. F. Moffet. The bride was given in marriage by her father. The bride wore a gown of white crepe de chine combined with shadow lace. Her veil in cap fashion fell from a coronet of lilies of the valley and she carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. She was attended by her sister Miss Bertha Holderer as maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Alma Englert and Miss Agnes Claesgen. The maid of honor wore pink chiffon over pink satin and carried sweet peas. The bridesmaids' gowns were blue crepe de Meteor and sweet peas were carried. Lawrence Glaser acted as best man and the ushers were Harry Klein and Charles Nunnold. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride. Among the pre-nuptial events was a linen shower by Alma Englert, a variety shower by Agnes Claesgens and a card party and luncheon by Mrs. Lawrence Glaser. Mr. and Mrs. Agram left in the afternoon for a trip on the great lakes. After July 15th they will be at home at 336 East Ave.

Men's Pure Silk Shirts

The answer to these last few days of real summer weather, from the standpoint of comfort, is men's pure silk shirts.

What can you imagine more comfortable when the mercury is climbing through the eighties than one of these beautifully thin and superbly made silk shirts? Just come in and look them over. We've never before had such an assortment from which to choose.

Men's pure silk shirts at $3.50 and $4.

At $5, an unusually fine lot of both imported and domestic patterns is shown, the very best values we believe, obtainable anywhere at this price.

At $6, there are beautiful, heavy brocaded silk shirts with satin stripes in a variety of most desirable patterns and all perfectly tailored in every particular. Don't fail to see this splendid assortment of men's pure silk shirts while it is complete and at its best.

In the Interest of the Children

If you want your children to believe there's no place like home it's up to you to make home cheerful and inviting for them.

Wire your home for electricity, or pipe it for gas and use Mazda lamps or a good type of incandescent gas mantel and you will have provided an irresistible atmosphere of cheerfulness that will help solve the problem of keeping your children in their own homes.
