R. B. I. Fall Term Opening

For the day school, Tuesday, September 2. For the night school, Monday evening, September 22.

The day school is open all the year, the sessions continuing right through August. New students are registering and commencing their courses with us every day. Many are registering this month who expect to begin their courses on September 2. All who can do so are advised to register in advance of the opening date.

913 students attended the Rochester Business Institute last year and there is not one of that number, who has not been recommended and placed. There were 440 calls for students during the year for positions that could not be filled because there were no candidates left to recommend.

If we should enroll one thousand students this year we should not have candidates enough for the places we shall be asked to fill. This statement is based upon the experience of the past eight years.

Rochester is a city of opportunity for young people who will spend one or two or more terms with us in preparation. Call at our office any day between 8.15 A. M. and 5 P. M., and let us tell you about it. Both Phones 325. Rochester Business Institute, Y. M. C. A. Building.
