"The Confession", at the Baker Theater

"The Confession" by James Hallock Reid, which has enjoyed a successful run at the Bijou Theater, Broadway, New York city, will be seen at the Baker the week of September 1st.

"The Confession" uses in its theme a vital subject—a priest's duty to his church, versus his duty to his state; a story that runs the gamut of every human emotion and yet, it asserted in Mr. Reid's manuscripts there is not a line that would offend the most sensitive. Mr. Reid is firm in his belief that the public will welcome a play with real life interest, not depending on the loud or the sensational or the vulgar for its success, but rather upon truth, which since time began, has always been stronger than fiction. The management of the play, sharing in Mr. Reid's belief, have furnished this play "The Confession", with a cast of exceptional ability.

In the Publishing Business Again
