

Co-operation.

WE express and repeat, not merely what we think but that which our patrons have proved. Therefore, every new friend who is moved to prove for himself becomes our patron by the influence of many and not solely by our personal suasion. We and our patrons are thus jointly seeking more friends for our ideal home brew--the more the happier for all concerned.

Priest Helps to End Strike
Three weeks ago 1,000 miners employed by the Delaware and Hudson company went out on a strike, because two men refused to join the union. The idleness was beginning to be felt by the families of the strikers, when Rev. J. J. Curran, pastor of the Holy Saviour church, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., interested himself and induced the two men to join the union. This brought the strike to an end.
