GRAND DUCHESS TATIANA.

Glance at this picture of the czar of Russia's two daughters, Grand Duchess Tatiana and Orand Duchess Tatiana and you will at once observe the wonderful likeness that exists between the two sisters. Grand Duchess Olga, the aller of the two girls, is said to be asserted to Prince Charles of Routenia, although the lady herself exclaimed, when recently shown a portrait of her sultor: "His face is enough for me. I don't want to hear anything be done by removing the cause. Tempere about him."

It is disastrous to the very young, who by this means obtain very premature wrinkles and find their ears permanently outstanding. It should be severely discouraged in young children, and on no account should such antics be reward—the child may look.

Points for Mothers

The Child Beautiful. No matter what a fond mother declares she wishes the fairy godmother to bestow on her child at its birth, in her heart of hearts she wishes her child to be beautiful. No amount of wishing seems to have any power in the matter, and what the fates decree has to be submitted to.
