

Christmas Furs

A regal display of Furs awaits you at the "Meng & Shafer" Stores—a collection of exquisite Furs in designs which are quite different from usual stereotyped styles.

The quality of "Meng & Shafer" Furs—the superior workmanship—the low prices—are worthy of a lengthy paragraph—but a comparison of values will convince you that "Meng & Shafer" Furs are the best Fur values to be had—more forcibly than anything we might express here.

Why not stop in and see the pleasing gifts to be had at moderate prices?

"Women are ill taught about love," says a lecturer. And yet it is probable they could tell any lecturer a few things.

The world's debt is now $42,000,000,000. One-half the world never expects to collect what the other half owes it.

New York is reducing taxicab fares, which means that it will take you just that much longer to get to the hotel than usual.

Chinese citizens are to visit America with a view, possibly, to finding a doctor of cities who can do something for Peking or Canton.

One advantage of canned opera is that after the record is bought it does not have an attack of temperament and refuse to sing.

Another thing: in figuring our income tax are we permitted to deduct the value of the clothes the washer-woman doesn't bring back?

Luther Burbank says that people can be cultivated like vegetables. That is true. There has been complaint about the beans for some time past.

Speaking of jealous women, how about the Chicago woman who wants a divorce just because her husband dreamed of his first wife, who is dead?

For the first time in their history the Moros now have a civil governor. It is to be hoped that they themselves will now be civil—in another sense of the word.

Because of railroad accidents and disasters at sea the life of the tourist is almost as much jeopardy as that of the person who hides at home and dodges automobiles.

A German expects to make diamonds with an ordinary arc light. But it has long been known that diamonds could be made of bits of glass with the aid of a powerful flashlight.

The Kansas City court of appeals has decided that a wife must pay the costs of an unsuccessful divorce suit if she has the money. In any event somebody has to pay them.

Let the young old men give a vote of thanks to Dr. Wilbur, chief statistician of the census bureau, who says that men at forty are in their prime instead of being ripe for the discard.

An infallible test for deciding whether a patient has cancer or not is announced, but people are not half so anxious to know that they've got it as they are to know how to get rid of it.

Now comes forth an expert to say man is growing brider because he has his hair cut too often. There is much to be said in favor of this explanation. It is just as convincing as all the others.

It just seems as though wild animals were possessed by meanness. Some deer is always straying into a poor man's garden, patch out of season, and now the ducks have taken to interfering with aeroplanes.

In the island of Radn, wherever that may be, it is an indispensable social requirement that the bridegroom shall weep while he is being married. In more civilized places the lamenting is often done afterward.

The French Academy of Sciences of fers cash prizes for the domestication of horns with a view to obtaining cigarettes without killing the birds that bear them. But will fashion want the precious plumes under those conditions?

Some sartorial authority is trying to work off a new fangled vest that buttons up the back when men get to wearing a thing like that it is going to establish a balance in the button up the back business, and the complaints won't all be from one side.

FATHER KOENIG'S NERVE TONIC

To Relieve Suffering Humanity. Louisville, Ky., October, 1912. Since about six years I did not know what a good night's rest was. I would retire worn out, my home care was very heavy and had no one to help me shoulder the burden. This thought nearly drove me frantic and my health was breaking down, but at this writing I found Father Koenig's Nerve Tonic and now feel that I am myself again. That oppressive feeling on my brain disappeared like magic after the first dose of the Tonic and refreshing sleep returned and also my health, for which I hope that God will spare the Tonic long to relieve suffering humanity.

Mr. F. Heits of Reamstown, Pa. says that Father Koenig's Nerve Tonic helped him a great deal from sleeplessness which troubled him since the last two or three years.

FREE A Valuable Book on Nervous Diseases and how to cure them in any form. For general information and the best medicine prepared by Rev. FATHER KOENIG, at Fort Wayne, Ind., since 1874, and now by the KOENIG MED. CO., Chicago, Ill. 68 W. Lake Street, near Dearborn Sold by Druggists at 25 per bottle, 6 for $1. Large Price, $1.75, 6 Bottles for $9.
