JANUARY SALE OF FURS

On account of the exceptionally mild season during the fall and early winter—the salesmen have known in our business experience of forty years—we have an unusually large stock of Furs and Fur Garments.

To effect a speedy clearance of this surplus stock we have made far greater reductions in price than ever before.

This presents an unusual opportunity—an opportunity to purchase Furs of "Meng & Shafer" quality at wonderfully low prices—prices which would be impossible under ordinary conditions.

You should see these remarkable values to fully appreciate the savings to be had—the reductions, of course, vary according to the former price—but in any event they will be from $9 on the moderate-priced sets to more expensive garments.

Coming as it does, before the cold weather has really set in, this sale offers—
