The supper given by the Holy Name Society of this parish last Monday evening was a most successful affair due to the active and keen interest shown by the committee in charge. The toastmaster, Mr. John Miller, who also acted as interlocutor for the evening had a number of varied and creditable speciality acts on the program which kept the members in a continuous uproar and laughter.

The tickets for the rural drama "The Village Postmaster" which is to be given under the auspices of the Holy Name Society for the benefit of the church at St. Boniface hall, Feb. 16, 17, and 18th, were distributed to the members. Great enthusiasm was shown to make this entertainment a banner show and owing to the spirited inclinations of disposing of tickets, the choice of an imported hat or a barrel of flour will be given the person disposing of the greatest number of tickets.

The play is said to be one that is rarely attempted by amateurs on account of the heavy dramatic scenes and the many scenic effects and paraphernalia, but under the direction of Edw. F. Hettig a special cast has been selected and have been diligently rehearsing for the past two weeks. The business management of the play is in charge of Lester Munding, the stage scenery is under the direction of Eugene Griwet; the scenery being painted by Louis Binnert, and Wm. Schleyer is appointed master mechanics.

A Doctor Recommends It. Louisville, Ky., August, 1912. Since about seven years I was so terribly nervous, that I could not sleep; had to walk the floor all night. Finally I consulted Dr. Carpenter and he recommended the use of Father Koenig's Nerve Tonic, of which the first bottle had the desired effect, as it gave me immediate relief, also to a great many others to whom I recommended the Tonic; it helped Mrs. J. M. Dutton, of this city, who had filled its mission in her own case, as she was troubled from nervousness since 15 years ago that I could not sleep, or eat in any other way and had pain all over my body. Mr. E. A. Higgins writes from 101 High St., Paris, Ky., that he recommends Father Koenig's Nerve Tonic and will praise it. A Valuable Book on Nervous Diseases and a Complete Guide to my Health. Free to my readers. Prepared by Dr. F. W. Carpenter, 4 West Wagon, Ind., also 124, and now by the KOENIG MED. CO., Chicago, Ill. 92 W. Lake Street, near Dearborn. ## In Two Places at One Time

Quite possible, if you use Bell Telephone Toll Service.

That deal in another city, for instance, need not be neglected simply because you haven't the time to travel there.

Just let your Bell Telephone take you there and back again. The whole trip will take but a few minutes and your business will be settled satisfactorily, too.

It pays to spend cents in order to save dollars.

Boost Your Show Window Efficiency

If you have a particular message that you want to emphasize in your store window display, the new Midas Miniature Electric Sign Letters will do it more effectively than any other means you could employ.

To illuminate these letters, the regular 10-watt Mazda sign lamp is used. The letters and numerals are white against a black background and they are interchangeable.

The letter panels are inexpensive, therefore you can afford to have an assortment large enough to change your show window selling talk as often as the needs of your business demand.
