

SIRENS AND SONS.

H. W. Connelly has served forty years in New York's postoffice. Lord Alverstone, late lord chief justice of England, has been granted an annuity of $20,000 for life.

The Royal Box.

Princess Mary of England is making a collection of idols. Chowfa Mahu, vajiravudh, who succeeded his father on the throne of Siam, is modern in his ideas and plans.

Town Topics.

Women could get the vote easily if they would walk up to the polls six abreast, the way they take possession of sidewalks in this city. Toledo Blade.

Current Comment.

Why not provide a stabilizer for the weather bureau? Chicago News. If typhoid germs and navies are possible typhoidless cities should also be possible. Buffalo Inquirer.

Flippant Flings.

Eggs become lunar tender generally by the cold storage operators run the risk of being arrested for "showing the queer." Washington Post.

Flower and Tree.

There are about thirty-seven species native to the United States, of which twenty-five are western species and twelve eastern.

Winter Baseball.

With three big league baseball games going, how is the country to find any time for business next summer? New York American.

DAMES AND DAUGHTERS.

Mme. Poincare, wife of the president of France, who is acknowledged to be the most accomplished hostess in that country, has thus far failed to be received by great monarchs.

Pert Personals.

Now that Princess Louise of Belgium has been sued for a corset bill she is ready to go on the American vaudeville stage. Milwaukee Sentinel.

Fashion Frills.

The usual competition as to which will spring a new spring bonnet first is agitating feminine minds these wintry days. Baltimore American.

Pen, Chisel and Brush.

L. Theo Dubu, who painted a portrait of President Wilson last June, afterward visiting Colorado, has reopened his studio in Paris.

Cost of Living.

The income tax is too high, according to Mr. Rockefeller. So is the price of gasoline, according to everybody else. Philadelphia Ledger.

Automobile Runs.

Only 1,127,940 automobiles in the United States! A few farmers must still be waiting critically for the 1914 1915 styles. New York Tribune.

Home Helps.

Never spread rugs of carpets on the floor until the floors are perfectly dry. Old pieces of velvet on put over the broom are excellent for cleaning the walls.

Time is money, but it isn't so scarce.

If a man is a bore he's always the last to discover it. A volcano in Japan is more deadly than a revolution in Mexico.

ROCHESTER'S NEW RETAIL PUBLIC MARKET Open Saturday January 31st, 1914 At 9:30 A. M. REMEMBER THE PLACE 23-25 Exchange St. 4 Doors from Main Street

5 & 10c Wall Paper The largest and most up-to-date Wall Paper stock ever displayed in Rochester is being shown at our large store at 17 Elm Street, one flight up. Everything in Wall Paper and Nothing Over Ten Cents.

THE LIVING ROOM LIBRARY TABLE $16.50 THE wood is a choice quartered oak, in dull finish. Design is Colonial, with top 26x42 inches, drawer 18x24 inches, and shelf 10x34 inches.

$9.00 NEW YORK AND RETURN Thursday, Feb. 12th Final Return Limit, Feb. 21st West Shore R. R. NEW YORK CENTRAL LINES

Book and Job Printing Done at Reasonable Rates Call and Inspect our Samples 64 North Street, Up Stairs