The "Village Postmaster" a rural drama full of comedy and pathos in scenes to be given under the auspices of the Holy Name Society, by the St. Boniface Footlight Club at St. Boniface Hall, Feb. 16, 17 and 18th, is from present point of view to be one of the best productions of the dramatic season. In the cast are 40 people including a village band, quartette, militia, dairy maids and a number of farmer boys. Some of the scenes are very much fit with an old home flavor such as a country grocery store, village post-office, a farm yard in harvest, with chickens and various live stock, also a threshing machine in operation surrounded by the busy farmers, country church and the village green with a thunder and heavy rain storm. The business management is in charge of Lester Munding and the direction of the play under Edward Hettig. The scenery is being built by the well known stage mechanic and designer Eugene Grivet, the scenery being painted by Louis Binnert, assisted by Raymond Vanderwall. The St. Boniface Musical Club will furnish the music and incidental strains for the occasion.

Men's Suspenders for Half

If you are in the habit of paying a half dollar for suspenders we can save you just half the price. They are made of extra heavy elastic that we have stitched leather ends, gilt trimmings and ball and socket cast-off suspenders that would sell regular for 50c. We have a limited quantity which we sell at 25c a pair.

If you desire a still better quality we have a lot that are made up from the same quality of material that are used in a regular dollar suspender—made by well-known manufacturer—in both wide and narrow styles. These are made of silk lisle elastic with gilt trimmings, ball and socket cast-off leather ends. They are 35c a pair.
