Interesting Budget of Happenings Gathered by Our City Reporter

St. Boniface.

The evening services during Lent are being well attended at our church.

The St. Boniface Young Men's Club held a most enthusiastic meeting on Wednesday evening last.

The St. Boniface Footlight club held an important meeting on Tuesday evening. Our dramatic club will give a big masterful production, a drama in 3 acts, at St. Michael's church under the auspices of the C. Y. M. C., on Monday and Tuesday evenings, April 13th and 14th. The play abounds in strong dramatic situations and presents a vivid picture of one phase of the relation between "Capital and Labor." The tense dramatic climaxes are pitched to the high degree by the capable performers who so successfully staged the 5 act rural drama "The Village Postmaster" given recently at our parish. The members in this cast are kindly requested to report for rehearsal on next Thursday evening.

The Knights of St. John, St. Boniface Commandery held their monthly meeting at the parish hall on Tuesday evening. The St. Boniface Knights are working zealously to assist in making the ball to be held at the Armory a big success.

The pupils of St. Boniface school will give an entertainment at our parish hall on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, April 15 and 16th. The unusual large amount of scenery and many electrical effects together with the many pretty drills and proglogues will tend to make this entertainment a success.

The funeral of Miss Josephine Schnopp, age 24, took place from this church Monday morning at 9 o'clock from the family home, 299 Caroline St., and at 9.30 from the church. The Imperial German government will not permit parliament to interfere with the army. Parliament will not be permitted even to laugh at it with impunity.

Teeth extraction to music is a dental novelty from Paris, where the red, white and blue wigs come from. Why not tango music for patients waiting their turn?

A gallant Indianapolis court has decided that wedding gifts are the property of the bride. The modern man is beginning to wonder if he can even call his soul his own.

Rudyard Kipling says that with the advance of aviation New York will become a "hot port." It will have to be kept on the charts however, to see that the sky line doesn't scuttle the ships.

Lord Weardale, who was beaten to the ground at a London railway station by a "suffragette," who piled a heavy dog whip, is sixty-eight years old and not strong. Have the ladies no chivalry?

The Chicago police authorities are wondering whether chewing gum found on the last seven suicides in that city had any relation to the act. More likely they had been chewing the end of their reflections.

A great mass meeting of London business men has enthusiastically endorsed the "supreme navy" policy of their government. Which tends to diminish the probability that we shall soon be able to add a "naval holiday" to our national holiday list.
