A Berlin architect predicts an age of glass houses. Aside from the proverbial handker, they will never be popular in very hot weather.

Hearty unanimity of thought in the contemplated church unity is made manifest by the willingness of every man that the rest of the world should join him.

If it is all the same to these savants, the world would prefer that they devise something that will make it immune from mosquitoes rather than from the effects of mosquito bites.

Burglars in New York who carried off a 500 pound safe, found $10 only in it. An experience like this discounts all the advice about putting one's utmost energy in any enterprise if one would win success.

Holy Redeemer Church and Rector.

Celebrates Silver Jubilee.

Rev. Jacob F. Staub Ends Twenty-fifth Year as Priest.

The silver jubilee of Rev. Jacob F. Staub, who was ordained July 28, 1889, is being celebrated this week at Holy Redeemer church, which is decorated with American, Rochester and papal flags. At 9.30 o'clock Tuesday solemn high mass was celebrated by Father Staub, assisted by Rev. Ferdinand Bogner, of Jersey City and Rev. J. P. Quinn, of Mount Reid. Rev. Anastasius Kredit, of Pittsburg, preached the sermon. Rev. J. Emil Gefell was master of ceremonies, assisted by Rev. Francis Kunz, of Holy Redeemer church. Rev. John Baier was cross bearer and Rev. D. J. Curran, V. G., represented Bishop Hickey in the sanctuary.

A procession from the rectory led by St. Louis Commandery, Knights of St. John consisted of altar boys, visiting priests and six nephews and five nieces of Father Staub, who carried flowers and gifts which were presented to him last Sunday evening. The gifts were from the Young Ladies' Sodality and Sister M. Vincent, of Pittsburg, a teacher when he attended Holy Redeemer School. The men and boy's choir sang a special mass, by Professor Gabroth, of Washington Catholic University. Decorations were silver bells, an illuminated cross, flags and flowers.

Afterward a banquet was served in Concordia Hall to sixty clergymen. Father Staub read a poem which he had written. Rev. M. J. Hargather was toastmaster and toasts were by Rev. D. J. Curran, Rev. James Dougherty, Rev. J. P. Quinn, Rev. Martin Cluny and Rev. William Payne. Father Staub responded and a message of congratulation from Bishop Hickey was read.

In the evening at a reception Father Staub was presented with a number of checks, one in duplicate for $1,000 by the children, for $350 by the men's societies, which he will devote to liquidating the debt on the school and further to equip the parish. Thursday evening the alumni of the parochial school celebrated the jubilee, as will the Federation of Catholic Societies Saturday night. Monday evening a serenade was given Father Staub and the church bells were rung for twenty minutes.

A high school professor, drawn on a jury, was late in court, and the judge made him stay in during recess. That must tickle his pupils.

Miss Commissioner Davis' triumph over the rebellious prisoners on Blackwell's island is militancy of a high order properly directed.

If the fool who didn't know it was loaded could only hit the man who rocks the boat, few would object to his possession of firearms.

Foundations for the fish stories of a great nation lie in the 4,000,000,000 spawn distributed in the fiscal year just passed by the bureau of fisheries!

Advisable as it may be to cultivate the "smile that won't come off," there is far greater need for a similar cheerful disposition on the part of pants buttons.

If Greece makes as good a thing out of the battleships as we did of the Louisiana purchase at about the same price, her ancient glories will soon be restored.

A Chicago man committed suicide because his wife nagged him for fooling away a quarter getting his hair cut. It is surprising to learn that he had any hair.

The battleship Mississippi, purchased by Greece, has been rechristened the Killis. If she had been sold to Russia the vessel might now be rejoicing under a six syllable name.

Miss Margaret Wilson's formula for dispelling the heat with a "cheerful smile" is fair philosophy. But it is doubtful if the most cheerful smile will restore the starch to the wilted collar.
