The Misses Lucy Hall, Verena and Mae Klee, Rose Temmerman and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Welch will spend a week's outing at Manitow Beach.

Mrs. Margaret McMenomy Minges, aged 72, died suddenly this week at the home of her son, Bernard McMenomy, of 785 Meigs St. The funeral took place from this church Thursday morning at 9 o'clock. Requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. John Boppel. Besides her son she leaves three daughters, Mrs. John Drosbach, Mrs. Fred Knoeffel and Mrs. Schoeneman and fourteen grandchildren.

The St. Joseph Benevolent Society of our church celebrated its fiftieth anniversary, the golden jubilee, at the new hall last Thursday evening and about 150 members and friends were present. The society was founded in 1852 with twelve members and since that time the membership has increased to 86. The St. Joseph Benevolent Society has proven to be one of the most important factors contributing to the rapid advance of the church along its various lines of activity. President Andrew Yengst acted as toastmaster at the dinner and called upon a number to respond to toasts. Speeches were made by Rev. J. F. Boppel, rector of our church; Rev. George Schmitt, assistant pastor; and Rev. Wm. Gruenauer, former assistant pastor. President Yengst gave the history of the society, tracing its work from the earliest time to the present date. Since its organization, the society has taken in $20,936 and at the present time there is $4,099.40 in the treasury. The hall was suitably decorated for the occasion. The dinner was served by the women of our parish.

After a wedding trip, Dr. and Mrs. Sackett will live at 627 Main Street West.

Opening of Catholic High School

The Rochester Catholic High School will be opened Tuesday, September 8. The registrations predict the largest attendance of its history. The faculty, it is announced, remains almost the same as last year, with the exception of the appointment of Charles E. Muckle as the new superintendent.

Eight Enter Sisterhood

Young Women take Habit in Nazareth Convent Chapel.

At a religious ceremony in the chapel of Nazareth Convent Wednesday morning, eight young women assumed the habit of the sisters of St. Joseph and gave themselves to the cause of Christian education. In the absence of Bishop Hickey, who has not returned from his admiranda visit to Rome, the vicar-general, Very Rev. D. J. Curran, officiated in the ceremony of investing in the religious habit. Father Curran was assisted by Rev. Louis W. Edelman, of Pittsford, who has recently returned from Europe.

The ceremony opened with the bridal procession, led by Miss Helen Yawman as cross-bearer. The maids of honor who followed were Virginia Hofshneider, Grace Blanchard, Dorothy McGrath and Mary Louise Creagan. Then followed the eight in bridal gowns and veils. At the altar the usual ceremony was observed, after which the young women retired to don the black habit of the sisterhood. They then returned for the completion of the ceremony, and received the nathes by which they will be known in religion. The names are as follows:

Miss Agnes O'Hara, Sister Stephen Marie; Miss Agnes Hughes, Sister Miriam Teresa; Miss Louisa Sackett, Sister Winifred Marie; Miss Julia Feeney, Sister M. Innocentia; Miss Margaret Tobin, Sister M. Lambert; Miss Constantia Kowlska, Sister M. Cosmas; Miss Sophia Stremplivis, Sister M. Lumena; Miss Emma Martin, Sister M. Cordelia.

The ceremony ended with the offering of the holy sacrifice, at which the newly-robed sisters received Holy Communion. After mass the new sisters met their friends.

Outfitting the Boy for School.

The boy's suit that has been able to withstand vacation days and be fit for the school room is the exception. School's beginning means a new suit for most youngsters.

Our Boys' Clothing Shop is ready to receive your boy with open arms and to outfit him superbly. The "Kidnap" suits for boys, in fancy tweeds and corduroys, every suit with an extra pair of trousers, are $4.95. There is a big variety of these. These are all wool navy serge suits for boys, with an extra pair of knickerbockers, at the same price, $4.95. Lots of other boys' suits of course which cost a little more.

For rainy days we have boys' raincoats and hats to match, black rubber, in sizes for boys from 4 to 16 years, at $2.50. Boys' double texture raincoats, waterproof, $3.50, $4.95, $6.50 and $8.50. A special cravenette-wool raincoat, $3.69. Boys' rain hats 50c and 75c. We have madras, gingham, and outing flannel and wool flannel waists in 6 to 16 yr. sizes, at 50c each. Special values in boys' waists, at 69c and 98c.

Handkerchiefs for School.

School time demands new handkerchiefs. Vacation days have been a fertile planting season and the crop is never harvested. We regard it as much a duty to provide plentifully of school handkerchiefs and with just as keen a sense of values, as we do in supplying the school stationery.

Here is a list of splendid handkerchiefs for the boys and girls—good handkerchiefs but not expensive—for handkerchiefs will lose themselves.

Children's handkerchiefs, plain white and with neat colored borders, at 2c each.

A broken assortment of misses' handkerchiefs with long initials, one of our best numbers selling regularly, at two for 1c.

Children's hemstitched handkerchiefs with neat initials, three for 10c.

Twenty styles of children's hemstitched handkerchiefs with embroidered corners, also some lace trimmed, three for 10c.

Children's plain white and colored bordered handkerchiefs, three for 10c.

Misses' handkerchiefs made of their shamrock lawn, with wide inside tape borders, 5c value, at three for 10c.

Boys' hemstitched handkerchiefs in all white and with neat borders, a number that sells regularly six for 25c, three for 10c.

Fifty styles of hemstitched handkerchiefs with embroidered corners and lace trimmed, special values at six for 25c.

Boys' handkerchiefs in white and with colored borders, six for 25c.

Children's hemstitched, all linen handkerchiefs with neat openwork initials, 3c each.

Children's all pure linen handkerchiefs, six for 25c.

Misses' hemstitched, fine, sheer lawn handkerchiefs, with small block initials, box of six for 25c.

Boys' hemstitched, pure linen handkerchiefs, large size, three for 25c.

Misses' hemstitched, fine soft finished linen handkerchiefs with neat, plain initials, three for 25c.

A very special value—about 25 dozen misses' hemstitched linen and fine sheer muslin handkerchiefs, embroidered in corner and all round designs, 12 1/2c and 15c values, at half price, 6 1/4c each; four for 25c. Basement
