3 IN ONE OILS. CLEANS, POLISHES, PREVENTS RUST

3-in-One is a light, pure oil compound that never gums. 3-in-One lubricates perfectly sewing machines, typewriters, bicycles, locks, clocks, guns, lawnmowers—everything that ever needs oiling in your home or office. No grease. No acid. A little 3-in-One on a soft cloth cleans and polishes perfectly all veneered or varnished furniture and woodwork. Sprinkled on a yard of black cheesecloth it makes an ideal Dustless Dusting Cloth.

3-in-One absolutely prevents rust on gun barrels, auto fixtures, bath room fixtures, gas ranges, everything metal, indoors or out, in any climate. It sinks into the unseen metal pores and forms a protecting "overcoat" which stays on.

Free—3-in-One—Free. Write today for generous free bottle and the 3-in-One Dictionary of hundreds of uses.

3-in-One is sold in all good stores in 3-size bottles: 10c (1 oz.), 25c (3 oz.), 50c (8 oz., ¾ pint). Also in new patented Handy Oil Can, 25c (3½ oz.).

The Secret of a Good Figure often lies in the brassiere. Hundreds of thousands of women wear the Bien-Jolie Brassiere for the reason that they regard it as necessary as a corset. It supports the bust and back and gives the figure the youthful outline which fashion decrees.

BIEN JOLIE (BE-AN JO-LEE) BRASSIERES

are the daintiest, most serviceable garments imaginable. Only the best of materials are used—for instance, "Walohn", a flexible boning of great durability—absolutely rustless—permitting laundering without removal.

They come in all styles, and your local Dry Goods dealer will show them to you on request. If he does not carry them, he can easily get them for you by writing to us. Send for an illustrated booklet showing styles that are in high favor.

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE, ss.:

I have compared the preceding copy of concurrent resolution with the original concurrent resolution on file in this office, and I do hereby certify that the same is a correct transcript therefrom, and of the whole thereof.

Given under my hand and the seal of office of the Secretary of State at the city of Albany, this twentieth day of July, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen.

[L. s.] MITCHELL MAY,
Secretary of State.

Form 30. TWO

Subdivision—Matter to follow is new.

STATE OF NEW YORK.

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE.

Albany, July 20, 1914.

Pursuant to the provisions of section one hundred Eighteen of the Constitution of the State of New York, and by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Election Law, notice is hereby given that the following proposed amendment to section four of article seven of the Constitution of the State of New York is referred to the Legislature to be chosen at the next general election of senators, and in conformity to section one, article fourteen of the constitution, to be published for three months previous to the time of making such choice.

MITCHELL MAY,
Secretary of State.

ARTICLE NUMBER TWO

Concurrent Resolution of the Senate and Assembly proposing an amendment to section three of article seven of the constitution, relative to the limitations upon the power of the state to incur debt.

Section 1. Resolved (if the Assembly concur), That the following amendment be proposed to the Legislature, to be chosen at the next general election of senators, and in conformity to section one, article fourteen of the constitution, to be published for three months previous to the time of making such choice.

State of New York,
In Senate, March 26, 1914.

This resolution was duly passed, a majority of all the senators elected voting in favor thereof, three-fifths being present.

By order of the Senate,
ROBERT F. WAGNER,
President.

State of New York,
In Assembly, March 27, 1914.

This resolution was duly passed, a majority of all the members elected to the Assembly voting in favor thereof, three-fifths being present.

By order of the Assembly,
THADDEUS C. SWEET,
Speaker.

How empty are the fruits of war! Whoever finally gets the fortress of Przemysl will have to keep on pronouncing it.

The king of Tonga island has declared his neutrality, thus completing our war map by the introduction of a perfect stranger.

COLD ICE CREAM.

The Story Told by the Chemist and Laboratory Test.

As one approaches a cart or store where ice cream is for sale on a hot day he is conscious of a chilly sensation in the region of the stomach. The cream looks cold and feels cold. A thought of the ice from which it was made comes to mind. The cream is eaten and the chilly sensation is increased. Then the cream is swallowed and the chilly sensation is increased still more. Then the cream is digested and the chilly sensation is increased still more. Then the cream is absorbed and the chilly sensation is increased still more. Then the cream is assimilated and the chilly sensation is increased still more. Then the cream is excreted and the chilly sensation is increased still more. Then the cream is forgotten and the chilly sensation is increased still more. Then the cream is remembered and the chilly sensation is increased still more. Then the cream is dreamed of and the chilly sensation is increased still more. Then the cream is thought of and the chilly sensation is increased still more. Then the cream is talked of and the chilly sensation is increased still more. Then the cream is written of and the chilly sensation is increased still more. Then the cream is read of and the chilly sensation is increased still more. Then the cream is published and the chilly sensation is increased still more. Then the cream is printed and the chilly sensation is increased still more. Then the cream is bound and the chilly sensation is increased still more. Then the cream is sold and the chilly sensation is increased still more. Then the cream is bought and the chilly sensation is increased still more. Then the cream is delivered and the chilly sensation is increased still more. Then the cream is eaten
