Interesting Budget of Happenings Gathered by Our City Reporter

Cathedral.

Rev. J. Francis O'Hern was given a welcome home reception by the congregation of St. Patrick's Cathedral in Cathedral hall Monday night.

William C. Barry, senior trustee of the Cathedral, welcomed him on behalf of the officers and congregation and Rev. Mortimer L. Nolan, assistant rector of the Cathedral, welcomed him in behalf of the Cathedral priests. Father O'Hern in his reply evidenced his appreciation for the many kind words that were said of and to him, and spoke particularly of the pleasure he had found in their messages to him while he was ill and away from Rochester. He spoke briefly of his recent experiences in the war stricken countries abroad, and said he was glad to take up his work again among them, which, he said, was a work of devotion to and love of their welfare.

The hall was decorated prettily in the paper colors of yellow and white, interwoven with American flags. Bastedeo's Orchestra furnished music.

About Your Calls for "Information" Operators

A surprising fact has recently developed about the calls for the Bell "Information" operators here in Rochester.

Practically 50 per cent. of these calls are for telephone numbers properly listed in the directory.

It is very easy to consult your directory for all calls and it means QUICKER SERVICE. You use unnecessary time when you call "Information" for a number already in the directory.

You require her to take the time to find the number.

You reduce the efficiency of your telephone service as your line may be reported busy while being used in this way.

You can help us to give you the best telephone service by keeping these thoughts in your mind when you call "Information."

By-the-way, have you a Bell Telephone?
