The admission charge has not been increased, but will remain at 25c; reserved seats may be secured at the rectory. The tickets are being rapidly disposed of by the members of the Young Ladies' Sodality.

This charming play in 4 acts is something different than ever before attempted by any other than professionals. "Alabama" is a list, now in course of construction in Winton Road, of which Rev. John B. Sullivan, formerly Southern air, engendered by the great war in conflict with all the

Health First

In buying food articles we must consider several things—economy, results, convenience, reliability; but the most important is Health.

Health means everything. If one gets cheated in buying dresses, shoes or bonnets it is provoking, but the harm is chiefly loss of money. In buying food articles, if imitations or poor stuffs are supplied, there is a loss of money and probably an injury to health also; and good health is beyond price.

Remember these facts when buying baking powder.

Charity Day

If a goodly sum is not realized on Nov. 18, "Catholic Charity Day," it will not be for lack of energy and initiative on the part of the Catholic women, young, middle-aged and old, of every Catholic parish in Rochester. All manners of plans to raise money in advance of the 18th, when a dinner and supper, bazaar and concert are scheduled in Convention Hall, have been reported to Mrs. John McParlin, chairwoman of the union committee of Catholic Charity Guild, and the workers for St. Ann's Home for the Aged. Some parishes are devoting their whole attention to the securing of donations of food for the dinner and supper. They are holding private card parties and showers of all sorts to swell their money contribution to the union fund.

This is the first year that these two Catholic charities have consolidated their appeals and efforts.

This year an admission fee will be made to those who attend the "Catholic Charity Day" at Convention Hall, between 11:30 o'clock in the forenoon and 2 o'clock in the afternoon. This will also hold forth in the hours between 5.30 and 7.30 o'clock in the evening. However, this will include dinner or supper. No admissions will be asked at other hours to the bazaar and concert.
