St. Basilian.

The masses on Sunday will be at 6, 7.30, 9 and 10.30 o'clock.

A splendid showing and one that was indeed very edifying, was made by the Young Ladies' Sodality last Sunday morning, when a large number received holy communion. Their conference was held in the afternoon, the address being made by their moderator, Rev. George Schmitt.

The special May devotions are being held Sunday afternoons and each morning after mass and are well attended.

The C.M.E.A., Br. 80, held an important and enthusiastic meeting at the Parish hall on Thursday evening.

The Young Ladies' Sodality on last Sunday at their meeting decided to hold their annual "May Party" to take place Wednesday evening, May 19th, at the school hall. A special committee has been appointed and the members are asked to co-operate with these leaders so that this affair can be a success.

Sunday being the third Sunday of the month school collection will be taken up at all the masses. Sunday will be communion day for the Young Ladies of the parish. The sodality will receive holy communion at the 8.15 o'clock mass. The regular meeting will be held in the afternoon. May devotions are held every evening during the month at 7.45 o'clock.

A meeting of all the men of the parish was held on Sunday afternoon in the basement of the school to give all a chance to become members of the Catholic Men's Charity League. Mr. Peter A. Vay presiding, Rev. Jacob Staub of Holy Redeemer church addressed the men on the aims and object of the League.

Beginning with last Sunday mass will be celebrated every Sunday in Star of the Sea chapel at Grand View Beach for the summer season. A pedro party will be given by the Young Ladies' Sodality of this church on Wednesday, May 19th. This is the last party of the series. Besides the first, second, third and consolation prizes for this party the grand total prize will be awarded. There will be amusements and prizes for those not playing pedro. Refreshments will be served.

A "Bachelor's Romance" is the title of the play that was presented at our hall Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings under the auspices of the Knights of St. John Bowling League and produced by the Footlight club. This four act comedy is a play which demands exceptional acting and with this severe test of the abilities of home talent, this club gave a most creditable account of themselves which answers for their wide established reputation in the dramatic field. The admirable way in which each of the players met these demands at each performance, confirmed the opinion that it is generally able, has competent and dependable players to at any time give a pleasing entertainment.

The stage management was in charge of Eugene Grivet and the play was directed by Edw. F. Hetting who also played lead in Davis

Holmes, a literary critic of the Review, upon which the play mainly centers itself. Others in the cast were as follows: Joseph Shale, Wm. Munding, P.J. Beyer, Edw. Lettau, Jos. Volkmer, F.G. Eberwein, Catherine Kreckel, Mae Weider, Agnes Jaeger and Ruth Weider. The music was furnished by our own orchestra.
