Unique.

Doting Mother—Our Willie's teacher has paid him a high compliment. Sympathetic Friend—How was that? Doting Mother—Why, she wrote me that Willie's spelling was quite remarkable and that she had never known of anything quite like it.—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

Horses in Argentina.

Horses imported into Argentina are taught to avoid a poisonous weed that the native animals shun naturally by forcing them to inhale smoke from burning pile of the weed.

THE FIRST WOMAN TO VOTE IN AMERICA

Mrs. Cott Discovers She Is One Of This New Voter.

This is the season of annual meetings for municipal improvement, when we are stirred to assembly, electing those who will work by political practice. Chairmen of the committees, whose duties include those of the political director, are meeting and working, every by woman, and the union address now being obtained in preparation for an auxiliary campaign.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, who as president of the International Women Suffrage Alliance raises the struggle for the women of twenty-six nations as chairman of the Election Board during the recent election, discovers during the session of New York women in the suffrage activities. For women who had been on foot, going from one political convention to another, questioning schools for women watchers at the polls, hearkening the local workers and visiting them until every organization. At the Manhattan convention she was time to say that every where she found New York women hard at work, and action to become voters." Perhaps that is a direct inheritance for women New Yorkers," said Mrs. Catt, and straightway fell into one of her many telling points.

"It is constant and to frequently observed, as it might be that the most widely read in politics was a New Yorker. Her rather was Daniel Deborah Moody. Her rather was Daniel Deborah Moody. Her rather was Daniel Deborah Moody
