

TO OUR CITY SUBSCRIBERS.

Kindly be prepared to pay your subscription when the agent calls.

City Parish News

Interesting Budget of Happenings Gathered by Our City Reporter

St. Boniface.

The St. Boniface Aid Society held an important and most enthusiastic meeting at the Parish Hall on last Sunday afternoon.

The Rosary Society on last Sunday afternoon recited the rosary for their late deceased member, Mrs. Mary Ritz.

The Newly-weds Jitney club will hold a porch party next Thursday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. L. Samenink. The next hostess, the week following, will engage the club in a "Molasses Pull."

Mr. William Haskins returned from an extended western trip and on the return, visited Mr. James Kineez, a former resident of this city and now editor of the Denver Times.

The C. M. B. A., Br. 80, held their semi-monthly meeting on last Thursday evening.

Mr. F. Kreckel returned to the city after a most pleasant trip visiting the Panama-Pacific Exposition.

The marriage of Miss Mae Roth, daughter of Peter Roth, of 9 Edmonds St. to George Paul Schultz, of Hamlin, took place at this church on last Wednesday. Miss Theresa Roth sister of the bride, and Gustave A. Schultz, brother of the groom were the attendants. The bride wore white crepe de chine trimmed with Japan rolled lace and a white picture hat. She carried white roses and lilies of the valley. The groom's gift to the bride was a string of pearls. After the ceremony, dinner was served at the home of the bride, the house being decorated with white peonies and the brides table with large bouquets of white and pink roses. Mr. and Mrs. Schultz left for an automobile trip through the east and will be at home after July 1st at 9 Edmonds St. The pre-nuptials included an automobile party by Mr. and Mrs. James McEntee, a cut glass shower by friends of the bride, a kitchen shower by Mrs. Chas. Ringwood, a dinner and outing by employees of the Eastman Kodak Co., and a linen shower by Mrs. F. Sloan.

Miss Mary Tschiederer and John F. Lang were united in marriage at this church Wednesday morning, the ceremony being performed by Rev. George J. Schmitt. The attendants were Miss Florence Tschiederer, and Charles Lang. The ushers were F. Schueler and E. Wiegel. The groom gave the bride a pearl necklace and the bride gave the groom a gold pin. The attendants and ushers received scarf pins. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the brides parents. Mr. and Mrs. Lang left for an Eastern trip to the Metropolis returning via Philadelphia and will be at home after August 1st at 21-2 Yale St.

Confessions will be heard on Thursday afternoon and evening for the First Friday of the month.

The Graduation and annual Commencement exercises were held at our parish hall on Tuesday and Wednesday evening. A general dress rehearsal was held Sunday afternoon at which time the pupils attended. The little playlets—"Playing Fourth of July," "Training of the Ruggleses" and the "Cadets Holiday" was well presented and the pupils who took part showed rare ability an achievement that is worthy of mention especially among the amateur thespians attending school. The entire program was well received by the audience each evening and it was very evident that the majority were laying in a supply of laughter and storing away a battery of smiles. Special mention must also be made of the clever and artistic scenery arranged by Stage Manager Eugene Rivet. Several good instrumental numbers and monologues made a favorable impression. On Wednesday evening, the diplomas and medals were conferred by our pastor, Rev. John Boppel, who also made a splendid and fitting address. Twenty-six graduates received their diplomas. The Valedictory—Contra Forentenu—was delivered by Josephine Kelly in a most creditable manner.

St. Michael's.

The requiem masses for this week were for Mr. Frank Gross, Miss Julia Haefele, Anthony Kehrig and Sybille Rauber.

The annual closing exercises of our school took place Sunday and Monday evening. A class of 41 received diplomas and medals. Following are the graduates: Rufus Maier, Leon Mayer, Cecilia Niebling, Henry Kiefer, Genevieve Stephany, John Robbins, Florence Englert, Lawrence Fleischman, Rosina Schwenzer, Alexander Englert, Flora Hoefel, William Behrnt, Albert Hasenauer, Lorraine Magin, Antoinette Scholl, Raymond Clauss, Edna Webber, Teresa Schreiner, Beatrice Orco, James Orco, Bernadine Schuhart, Edna Reineschmidt, Florentine Koerner, Lucy Whitman, Ella Schwab, Henry Hermle, Robert Clauss, Joseph Schnorr, Lewis Behrnt, Gerard Wolf, Josephine Fouquet, Joseph Hart, Anthony Zwerger, Richard Schwenzer, Hedwig Stauber, Ruth Vogler, Mortimer Brennan, Frida Streb, Arthur Earl, Isabella Boehl, Anthony Metzger. The Valedictory was given by Beatrice Orco, Genevieve Stephany, Lorraine Magin, Lucy Whitman. The address was given by the pastor, Rev. M. J. Hargather. The entertainment was exceptionally good. Much credit is given to the Sisters of our school who made the entertainment a success.

A meeting of the Young Ladies' Sodality will take place Sunday afternoon.

Corpus Christi.

Sunday, June 27th, the monthly debt collection will be taken up.

The Commencement exercises were held in the school hall on Friday afternoon of last week. Devotions to the Sacred Heart will be held on Wednesday and Friday evening at 7:45 p. m. Next Friday being the first Friday of the month, confessions will be heard on Thursday afternoon and evening and masses will be said at 6, 7 and 8 o'clock on Friday morning.

St. Peter and Paul's.

Graduation exercises were held last Sunday evening in the church, 54 graduates of the parish school receiving regents diplomas. The class was the largest that has ever been graduated in the history of the school. The attendance last year was 575 children. The awarding of diplomas was made by Rev. J. E. Gefell, Ph. D., pastor of the church. He also made the address to the graduates and their parents. Members of the graduation class and grade pupils were presented medals and special prizes for general excellence. The exercises closed with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

On Monday morning a requiem mass was said for Victoria Huck, an offering of the Rosary Society. An anniversary requiem mass was celebrated for Mrs. Frances Connolly.

At the Pedro party held June 16th, in the basement of the school the following won prizes Mrs. Elizabeth Kuder, Mrs. Emma Rutkowski, Catherine Tren, B. Zuern, H. Bietry and Gertrude Spann.

St. Francis Xavier.

A meeting of the Young Ladies' Sodality was held Sunday afternoon at the parish hall. Sunday morning the men of the parish will receive communion. Sunday afternoon a meeting will be held by the members of the Sacred Heart Society.

Immaculate Conception Parish.

Eighty-four pupils were graduated from Immaculate Conception school Tuesday evening at graduation exercises in the school hall in Edinburgh Street. It was the largest graduating class in the history of the school. The programme for the evening consisted of the singing of "To This O' Country" by the graduates, an allegory, "Lighthouse's Pilgrimage," by ten girls of the graduating class; a vocal solo by Leo J. Gaffney, the valedictory by Norman W. Ryan; the presentation of the class by Rev. E. M. Lynch and the awarding of diplomas and medals and the address to the graduates by Rev. Augustine M. O'Neill, LL. D., M. R.

Scholarship medals were given to Henry Schroth and William Maxcy. The Christian Doctrine medal was awarded to Marion McCarthy. Medals were also awarded to pupils of the various grades for perfect attendance.

Mrs. Johanna Crowley, widow of Dennis A. Crowley and daughter of the late Michael Briarton, one of the earliest settlers of the old Eighth Ward, died on Wednesday at the family home at 36 Cady Street. She leaves four daughters, the Misses Fannie and Nellie E. Crowley, Mrs. P. F. Ryan and Mrs. Don Palmer; a son, Charles C. Crowley, and two grandchildren. She was one of the oldest members of Immaculate Conception parish. The funeral will take place Saturday morning at 9.15 o'clock from the home, and at 9.45 o'clock from this church.

The regular monthly meeting of the Confraternity of Mary was held in the church hall last Sunday afternoon. The following sick committee was appointed for the summer months: Misses Marie Perkins, Eileen Phalon, Margaret Englert, Katherine Murphy, Kathleen Fitzgerald and Alice Spillane.

It was decided to hold the annual picnic at Newport, Tuesday, June 29th. The members will meet in the church hall on that afternoon at 2:30 and will go to Glen Haven in chartered cars, whence the boat will take them to Newport. Dinner will be served at 6:30 and arrangements will be made for the boat to meet all members who will not be able to go for the afternoon but will go down for dinner. In the evening one of the boats will be chartered and the members will enjoy the boat ride on the bay and lake. The following will have charge of the "sports": Misses Marie Lynch, Minnie Doud, Marie McIntyre, Mary Hickey, Anna McGrath, Mae Cronan and Lucille Lynch. Tickets can be secured at the rectory.

The graduation exercises were held in the church hall last Wednesday evening. A class of thirty-eight received diplomas and a class of thirteen graduated from the Commercial Course. The officers of the class of 1915 are: President, Basil Hayes; Vice-President, Marie Burns; Secretary, Anna Schnurr and class prophet, Earl Shaughnessy. The members of the congregation were pained to learn of the death of Miss Catherine Fitzsimons, sister to our pastor, Rev. Simon Fitzsimons.

Miss Anna Buckley of Manhattan Street, who underwent an operation at St. Mary's hospital a few weeks ago is home and doing nicely. Miss Katherine McHugh of Manhattan Street, who is in the Homeopathic Hospital is improving.

of the singing of "To This O' Country" by the graduates, an allegory, "Lighthouse's Pilgrimage," by ten girls of the graduating class; a vocal solo by Leo J. Gaffney, the valedictory by Norman W. Ryan; the presentation of the class by Rev. E. M. Lynch and the awarding of diplomas and medals and the address to the graduates by Rev. Augustine M. O'Neill, LL. D., M. R.

Scholarship medals were given to Henry Schroth and William Maxcy. The Christian Doctrine medal was awarded to Marion McCarthy. Medals were also awarded to pupils of the various grades for perfect attendance.

Mrs. Johanna Crowley, widow of Dennis A. Crowley and daughter of the late Michael Briarton, one of the earliest settlers of the old Eighth Ward, died on Wednesday at the family home at 36 Cady Street. She leaves four daughters, the Misses Fannie and Nellie E. Crowley, Mrs. P. F. Ryan and Mrs. Don Palmer; a son, Charles C. Crowley, and two grandchildren. She was one of the oldest members of Immaculate Conception parish. The funeral will take place Saturday morning at 9.15 o'clock from the home, and at 9.45 o'clock from this church.

St. Mary's.

The regular monthly meeting of the Confraternity of Mary was held in the church hall last Sunday afternoon. The following sick committee was appointed for the summer months: Misses Marie Perkins, Eileen Phalon, Margaret Englert, Katherine Murphy, Kathleen Fitzgerald and Alice Spillane.

It was decided to hold the annual picnic at Newport, Tuesday, June 29th. The members will meet in the church hall on that afternoon at 2:30 and will go to Glen Haven in chartered cars, whence the boat will take them to Newport. Dinner will be served at 6:30 and arrangements will be made for the boat to meet all members who will not be able to go for the afternoon but will go down for dinner. In the evening one of the boats will be chartered and the members will enjoy the boat ride on the bay and lake. The following will have charge of the "sports": Misses Marie Lynch, Minnie Doud, Marie McIntyre, Mary Hickey, Anna McGrath, Mae Cronan and Lucille Lynch. Tickets can be secured at the rectory.

The graduation exercises were held in the church hall last Wednesday evening. A class of thirty-eight received diplomas and a class of thirteen graduated from the Commercial Course. The officers of the class of 1915 are: President, Basil Hayes; Vice-President, Marie Burns; Secretary, Anna Schnurr and class prophet, Earl Shaughnessy. The members of the congregation were pained to learn of the death of Miss Catherine Fitzsimons, sister to our pastor, Rev. Simon Fitzsimons.

Miss Anna Buckley of Manhattan Street, who underwent an operation at St. Mary's hospital a few weeks ago is home and doing nicely. Miss Katherine McHugh of Manhattan Street, who is in the Homeopathic Hospital is improving.

Miss May Cluney, daughter of Mrs. John Cluney, of No. 345 Field street and James Hendricks of Batavia, were married Tuesday morning at Blessed Sacrament Church by Rev. M. J. Cluney, of Honeye Falls, cousin of the bride, assisted by Rev. T. F. Connors, rector of the church, and Rev. A. A. Notebaert. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the Hotel Seneca and covers laid for eighteen. Mr. and Mrs. Hendricks left for an western trip.

At the 6 o'clock mass hereafter there will be an English sermon during the summer months. School closed for the summer vacation on Monday with a solemn high mass at 8:30 o'clock and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

The wedding of Irene Hetzler and William Finein took place on Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock.

Rochester will play Toronto on July 3, two games on the 5th and 6th, one game.

Consulting decorator for T. C. Gleich, Chicago and New York, will gladly consult with you on the Decorations and Furnishings for your Home, Church, Theater, or Club. Some of our contracts are the Lyceum Theater, St. Francis Xavier Church, the Friedlich homestead on East Ave., and a number of fine homes and churches throughout the State. Mr. Hahn will cheerfully give suggestions and estimates. 1120 Granite Building, Rochester. Phone 2722-J. Adv.

Send us your Job Printing.

Sacred Heart.

Rev. William J. Flynn, who was ordained in Emmitsburg, Md., on June 15th, celebrated his first high mass last Sunday in this church at 10:30 o'clock. He was assisted by Rev. Father Tobias as deacon and Rev. Father Heffernan as sub-deacon. Rev. Geo. V. Burns, pastor of the church, was master of ceremonies. Father Burns preached an eloquent sermon on "The Priesthood." The church was filled with relatives and friends of the young priest. After the mass he gave each one his blessing. A reception was held at his home in Seneca Parkway in the afternoon. Rev. Father Flynn has the honor of being the first one to be ordained from this parish. The Kts. of St. John escorted him to the church.

Graduation exercises of the grammar and commercial departments of St. Joseph's school were held in the school hall in Franklin St., Thursday night before an audience that taxed every seat in the auditorium. The stage where the graduates had seats and received their diplomas was prettily decorated. A musical and entertainment programme was presented by the school children preceding the exercises.

There were 31 graduates in the grammar department class and 48 in the commercial department class. Rev. Wm. Kessel, C.S.S.R., the rector, presided and presented the diplomas.

Scholarships for a course in the commercial department were won by the following members of the grammar department graduation class: Carl Minges, John McDowell and Albert Mura. The scholarships were for the highest averages in the regents examinations.

A number of awards for excellence in various school branches were presented to winners, following the conferring of diplomas. An address was made by Father Kessel, in which he advised parents of the graduates to have them continue in school, if possible, and spoke of the advantages of a higher education. The programme of the school children, which included a sketch entitled "A Public Benefactor," was appreciated by the audience, and indicated that the children were well trained for their parts.

Miss Matilda Helen Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Young of 8 Mt. Pleasant Park, and Mr. Cornelius E. Dillon of Corning were married on Wednesday morning at this church by Rev. Father Waringer. The bridesmaid was Miss Ruth Stoller and the groomsmen were Mr. Joseph Young. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride to 75 immediate relatives and friends. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dillon and Mr. Don Dillon of Hornell and Mrs. J. E. Berry, of San Francisco. Pre-nuptial events included a variety shower by Mrs. James Buckley, a linen shower by Mrs. Louis Young and a dinner party by Miss Frances Harrington. Mr. and Mrs. Dillon left town for a short Eastern trip, after which they will live at Corning.

A class of 32 pupils was graduated from this school on Wednesday evening. Children from all the grades took part in the exercises which included a dumb-bell drill, a hoop drill and recitations and solos. The class was presented by Rev. J. M. O'Brien and diplomas were awarded by Bishop Thomas F. Hickey.

A Rose Festival was conducted Friday afternoon and evening in Cathedral Hall. There was an entertainment in the evening by the school children of the Cathedral Grammar School. A candy sale for the children was conducted in the afternoon.

MR. LOUIS F. HAHN.

By the Way, Have You a Bell Telephone?

New York Telephone Company

95 N. Fitzhugh Street

Rochester Phone, Stone 1913-L

W. Seward Marshall

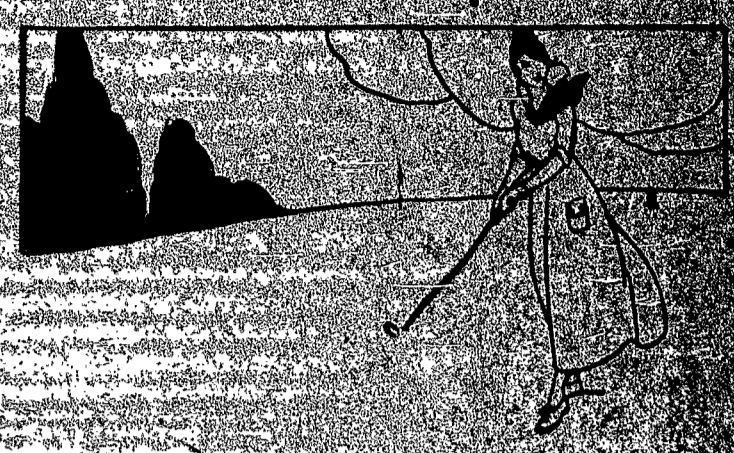

High Art Olives and Olive Oil

Importer BOTTLER JOBBER

155-157 St. Paul Street

Send us your Job Printing.

Wash Skirts—A Special Sale

By far the most important Sale of Wash Skirts ever made by this Store!

Begins Monday, June 28 See Monday Morning Paper

Hundreds of the cleanest, finest wash skirts we ever saw—every one made under the best conditions—and the price below the actual value.

Regen Wash Skirts	Beach Cloth Wash Skirts
Fine Wash Skirts	Gambroon Wash Skirts
Coralline Wash Skirts	Poplin Wash Skirts

AT

$1.00 $1.75 $2.75 $3.75
Value $1.50 Value $2.50 Value $3.50 Value $4.50

McCURDY, ROBINSON, CO.

Field

BAKED GOODS

GOOD FOR YOUR PLEASURE
GOOD FOR YOUR TABLE
BETTER THAN THE OLD

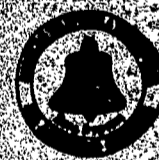

Cinnamon Kuchen Sauer

CAKES FOR THE SUNDAY EVENING

Our dining room, 214-216 Court Street, is a most convenient variation for your downtown meals.

The Field Bakery

179 Clinton Ave. South

Who Gets There First—

THE MAN WHO WALKS

Or

THE MAN WHO TALKS?

You can't beat your voice over Bell Lines to any place.

That's one good, big reason why the man who works by Bell Telephone will in the long run see more people, have more interviews and get more business.

Don't try to win by walking. Take your share of trade by talking—work your Bell telephone hard.

By the Way, Have You a Bell Telephone?

New York Telephone Company

95 N. Fitzhugh Street

Rochester Phone, Stone 1913-L

W. Seward Marshall

High Art Olives and Olive Oil

Importer BOTTLER JOBBER

155-157 St. Paul Street