

Woman's World

Sister of the Kaiser, Who is Exceedingly Pro-German.

QUEEN SOPHIA OF GREECE

Queen Sophia has made it quite clear to the members of the reigning house...

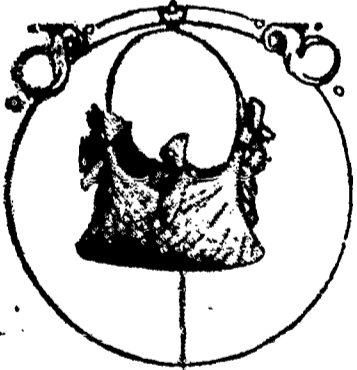

Her name will be commemorated at Athens by one of the strategoi of the municipalities...

Some years ago Queen Sophia's attention was attracted to the shocking sanitary condition of the then existing slaughterhouses...

CHARMING CONCEIT.

A Tiny Basket Holds Cotton, and Also the Lace and Hook.

A tiny basket of sweet grasses which can be hung on a convenient hook is an invention for the use of the woman...

FOR THE WOMAN WHO CROCHETS.

Who crochets. And what woman does not crochet these days? Her spool of crochet cotton will unwind freely from this basket...

A Dustless Duster.

A good "dustless" duster can be made of a pair of old stockings, slit open, stitched together and then soaked in coal oil for several hours before hanging in the air to dry.

Machine Oil Stains.

Yellow machine oil stains on white material may be removed by rubbing the spot with a cloth wet with ammonia before using soap.

RADISH ROSES.

Radish roses are not hard to make, and they are very attractive when served as a salad garnish or with celery and olives.

Hints for Housewives

Look For Dishonest Measures. The north plaza of the city hall, New York, which was stacked high with all kinds of weights...

That is the reason they were there for it was weights and measures week and Commissioner Joseph Hartigan of the mayor's bureau...

Another infernal machine was a large iron scale which gave only thirty five pounds when it registered 100.

On one side of the exhibit was a pile of baskets, such as are used to measure fruit and vegetables...

While this exhibition was exposed to the elements, safely housed on the third floor of the Municipal building...

When Ice Cream Sticks. Ice cream is sometimes frozen so hard that it does not come out of the mold easily.

How to Clean Mattings. When matting is soiled cut it with a soft dannel cloth dipped in lukewarm salt water.

If You Need More Fat. If your physician advises you to eat more fat see that your diet includes plenty of cream butter olive oil...

Cleaning Mackintoshes at Home. Spread the mackintosh out flat on the table and scrub with warm water and yellow soap.

This Drives Mosquitoes Away. Wind a piece of paper around a pencil and fill the tube so formed with Parisian powder.

Bran For White Paint. A plain cloth dipped in hot water and then in a saucer of bran will clean white paint and not injure it.

Brightening Rugs. Throw coarse salt over rugs and carpets before sweeping them to prevent the dust from rising.

To Sharpen a Knife Quickly. A strip of emery cloth tacked to a small square board will be found useful for quickly sharpening the carving knife.

Ironing a Bias. Be sure to iron garments with the straight of the goods and thus prevent stretching of the bias seams.

Care of the Baby In Summer

Prepared by the children's bureau, United States Department of Labor.

Food For the "Runabout" Baby. For the first nine months or more of a baby's life, when he is growing at a very rapid rate...

A list of the foods suitable to this time of the baby's life is given in greater detail in a bulletin called "Infant Care" published by the children's bureau of the department of labor.

The average healthy baby of one year of age should be taking five ounces a day at four hour intervals.

As the baby grows and thrives various things may be added to his diet. The following are sample meals for a day for a healthy child from eighteen months to two years old.

The following rules for cooking and preparing certain of these articles may be helpful to mothers.

Toast - Bread one day old, cut in very thin slices placed on edge in a toast rack in an oven to dry.

Broth - Of round steak one pound of water, one salt.

Meat - Round of sirloin steak arranged with a silver spoon.

Spreads - Cook apples in a covered earthenware or enameled tin.

Baked Apple - Apples baked three quarters of an hour.

Oatmeal - Have a pint of water boiling in the top of the double boiler.

The following are some of the things a baby should not have.

Children's Teeth. Take Them to a Dentist Regularly and Insist Upon Use of Toothbrush.

It is most important to get young children into the habit of regularly cleaning their teeth.

For the Children

Wild Lamb Which Looks Like Its Tame Relatives.

Nearly every child has seen at one time or another the gentle little lamb which frolics so gaily in the pasture.

Reconstructions. You know there are many things at ways mentioned together such as "Jack and Jill"...

The following list of twenty will illustrate the game, the last part of each sentence appearing only on the key.

Japanese Children. Children have a good time in Japan. They are blessed by inheritance with a cheerful nature.

Hidden Treasures. One day a girl started for the school and found a very fine diamond bracelet.

A Riddle. The cause that first brought grief and death in the world.

Squaky New Shoes. No matter how I try to go, my brand new shoes keep squeaking.

You squaky like tiny little mice. Why do you nibble at the cheese and rice?

You squaky like squirrels in a tree. You squaky at mother, then at me?
