Interesting Budget of Happenings Gathered by Our City Reporter

St. Boniface.

The Young Ladies' Sodality of this parish held their annual picnic at Newport last week Wednesday, almost a hundred of the members attending the big outing. After dinner, the young women of this organization took part in a program of novel and interesting sports that was run off on the green at Newport House. The committee in charge gave a good account of the energy used towards the gala success of the day. This Sodality is now in a most flourishing condition and every young woman of the parish should feel honored, as a member of this society. Miss Frances Wanamaker is president and Rev. George Schmitt, moderator. The winners of prizes are as follows: Eleanor Biedenbach, Ruth Weider, Viola Miller, Matilda Gentner, Theresa Hohman, Margaret C. Kalb, Genevieve LeFrois, Evelyn Le Frois, Gertrude Schenk, Katherine Kreckel, Anna Zimmer, Gertrude Guetlein, Leona Ruby, Anastasia Eberwein, May Weider, Theresa Kramer, Theresa Krackel, Rosalie Miller, Agatha Knuth, Minnie Halstrick, Lillian Horn, Julia Gleichauf, Florence Tachiederer, Margaret Eberwein, Anna Stupp and Katherine Kloe.

The St. Herman's Benevolent Association will hold their next meeting on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the parish hall. Confessions will be heard on next Thursday afternoon and evening for the First Friday of the month. The ladies' Sacred Heart Society will meet on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. McNamara of this parish are cruising on the Great Lakes for a three weeks trip, with stops at Chicago and Duluth.

The "Moonlight Club", the popular organization of young men who are inclined toward the athletics and out-door games, will attend the Tennis Tournament, to be held in Detroit, August 4th. Miss Mollie Miller of 634 South Ave., is enjoying a delightful water trip on the Anchor Line Steamers plying between Buffalo and Duluth.

The Knights of St. John with their families and friends enjoyed themselves with an old-fashioned "Blow-Out" at Corbetts' Glen on last Sunday. Captain Gollach with his reliable committee who have a reputation to keep their hummin' till the cows come back, had more irons in the furnace of fun than a Stoker would ordinarily bargain for. It was a day for laughing and eating and the many families of this parish were given a rare treat by the generous Knights. The big novelty in the line of sports was the base-ball game between the married and single men, the latter winning, but only with the aid of the allied umpires, the swatting ended with a score of 8 to 6. A long list of races were run off. Refreshments and lunch was served throughout the day and "Our Own Band" furnished the music.

The St. Boniface Young Men's Club called a special meeting on Friday evening to decide on important business matters.

THE NEW R. B. I. BUILDING

Alice R. May, Architect.

This pen and ink sketch shows the front elevation of the new home of the Rochester Business Institute, 172 Clinton Avenue, South, near Convention Hall. The new building will be ready for the fall term opening of our fifty-third school year, Tuesday, September 7th. The evening school sessions will begin Monday, September 20th.

The erection of our new building is the most significant development in the history of the school. It will enable the R. B. I. students and teachers to carry on their work under ideal conditions. Safety, sanitation, accessibility, room, light, heat, ventilation, quietness and the latest improvements in equipment and facilities have been most carefully considered and provided for.

Our regular day school sessions in the commercial, shorthand, stenotypy, typewriting, penmanship and English Departments continue without interruption through the month of August. New classes in all departments will be started Monday, August 2.

Our new catalogue and evening school circular are on the press. Copies of each will be ready to deliver early in August. Meantime, inquiries by correspondence, telephone or personal call will receive prompt attention any day of the week (Saturday afternoons excepted).
