

Holy Rosary

The Young Ladies' Sodality will receive Holy Communion on next Sunday.

A retreat will be given in this parish at the end of the month by a Redemptorist Father from the Northeast.

In October, Holy Rosary parish will celebrate its twenty-fifth anniversary. The women of the parish met Monday evening to make plans for the supper, which is to be held in celebration of this event.

The Young Ladies' Sodality held its annual election of officers Monday evening. The officers for the coming year are: Pres., Miss Madeline Downs; vice president, Miss Rose Bauman; Secretary and Treasurer, Miss Elizabeth Leagan. During the past year the Young Ladies have had several lectures given by priests of the city, as well as several enjoyable social affairs. The sodality has grown rapidly during the past year. This is due in a great measure to the earnest work done by Miss Mary Geiger, president and the other officers whose terms have expired.

St. Andrew's Church

The funeral of John Helfer of 394 Duran Street, was held on Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. Besides his wife, he leaves five sons, Peter Helfer, of Webster; Philip Helfer, of Sodus; George Helfer of Chili; John and Jacob Helfer of this city; five daughters, Mrs. Carl Grich, of St. Louis; Mrs. Cassier Backus, Mrs. John N. Aha and Mrs. J. Gerstner, of this city; a brother, Meinhard Helfer, of Naples; 38 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock services were held, consisting of the litany, conference and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. After services, the Holy Name Society held a meeting.

The rewards were given to those selling the largest number of tickets for the Lawn Festival. Mr. Joseph Bauer received first prize and Mr. Anthony Wendelgass, second prize.

Owing to the large attendance, there will be three masses on Sundays, the early mass at 7:30; childrek's mass at 9:15 and High mass at 10:30 o'clock.

Dissette, of Seneca Falls, a cousin of the groom. Rev. Andrew T. Dissette, of Clyde, celebrated the nuptial mass, which followed the ceremony. In the sanctuary were Rev. John P. Brophy and Rev. Daniel Quigley.

Holy Family

The funeral of Frederick Henchen took place Friday morning at 9 o'clock; He was a veteran of the Civil War. The monthly meeting of the Christian Mother Society was held Sunday night. As soon as the war ends it seems the process of putting war debts must begin. Maybe that's the key on the belt ligatures of a future to discuss peace.

Pert Personals

Pool of Annonis has now been down in a submarine as well as up in an aeroplane. On the conclusion of peace he may give us an idea that will make Honor, Valor and Milton look foolish.

The Cookbook

Sliced raw potatoes can be baked instead of fried if put in a hot oven, and they will be nice and crisp. Meat or fish to be fried should be removed from the ice some time before cooking or it will cool the fat and absorb the grease.

Our Lady of Perpetual Help

The requiem masses for this week were for Stephen and Louisa Streib and the Poor Souls. Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock a high mass was celebrated in honor of the Seven Dolors of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
