A Cordial Welcome

Always Awaits
Visitors at this Store

People from out of town have a standing invitation to visit our store, which is often referred to as one of the sights of Rochester. We believe that a trip to our building will be of exceptional interest to them—and of profit, too. If purchases are contemplated. Our eighteen furnished rooms are suggestive of modern methods of home furnishing, and every floor is an exposition of the latest and best from many of America's leading factories.

Please do not hesitate to come and look about at your pleasure. Lookers are always welcome here and no one is ever solicited to buy.

St. Peter and Paul.

Bishop Hickey confirmed a large class of children and adults on last Sunday afternoon, followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament by Rev. J. E. Gefell and the singing of Holy God by the congregation.

Announcement was made at all the masses on Sunday that Saturday will be a day of fast and abstinence, the vigil of All Saints.

The marriage of Miss Flora O. Miller and Mr. Louis Henninger of Syracuse was performed by Rev. J. E. Gefell on Wednesday morning, October 20th, at the 7 o'clock mass. Mr. and Mrs. Henninger will reside in Syracuse.

Mrs. Margaret Quinlan who was buried on Wednesday morning from Corpus Christi church was a member of Br. 62, L. C. B. A., of this church.

At the last meeting of Br. 62, L. C. B. A., the following prizes for Pedro: Sarah Monaghan, Margaret Ochs, and Josephine La Tura. Lunch was served by Mrs. Reichenberger, Theresa Schreiner and Hattie Kuder. The next meeting will be held Thursday evening, Nov. 4th, when assessment 309 will expire.

William Herrmann, 18 years, son of Joseph and Margaret Herrmann, died on Monday morning at the family home, 856 Smith St. The funeral was held on Wednesday morning at 8:30 from the home and at 9 o'clock from the church.

Nomination of officers of Ladies' Auxiliary, No. 44, will be held on Monday evening, Nov. 1st. All members are requested to attend. Lunch will be served after the meeting.

Holy Rosary Parish.

Rev. Arthur A. Hughes has returned from a trip to the Pacific coast. He was very much pleased with the success of the silver jubilee celebration, which took place during his absence.

The members of the Holy Name Society will receive their quarterly communion next Sunday.

A number of young ladies will hold a card party in the church basement, November 17th. The tickets will be twenty-five cents. A number of valuable prizes have been obtained.

The members of the parish have been invited to attend the meetings of the Winthrop Study Circle and they may also bring non-Catholic friends. The lectures are given at Holy Redeemer Hall on Hudson Ave.

St. Boniface.

The masses on Sunday will be as usual at 6.00, 7.30, 9.00 and 10.30 o'clock.

The Knights of St. John League again appeared on the Genesee Hall alleys last Monday evening when the St. Boniface pin artists met and defeated the Sacred Heart Bowlers taking two thirds of the points. A loyal band of rooters accompanied our bowlers.

The Forty Hours' devotion drew to a close last Sunday evening with procession and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. A very large number of our children dressed in white and carrying choice flowers together with the many visiting priests made the services one of great pomp and solemnity.

The "Newly Weds" Pedro and Social club met and were entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. Wanamaker of Gregory St.

Confessions will be heard next Thursday afternoon and evening for the first Friday of the month.

The St. Herman's Benevolent Association will hold their next regular semi-monthly meeting at the Parish Hall next Wednesday evening.

Mr. Bertram Dobbertin of Hamilton St. is spending a three weeks vacation in Maton, Ill.

Miss Lorene K. Oberlies, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Oberlies of 704 Clinton Ave. South, and Mr. Austin Edward Hetzel, of 76 Parsells Ave., were married Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock at this church. The bridesmaids were Miss Hildegarde Oberlies, a sister of the bride as maid of honor, and the Misses Florence Hetzel, sister of the groom and Esther Prozeller, as par-bridesmaid. The best man was Mr. Harold Hetzel, brother of the groom. Mr. Leo Oberlies and Mr. Theodore Weider, cousins of the bride. Mr. Frank Maloney and Mr. Ray Blodgett were ushers. Mr. and Mrs. Hetzel will live at 29 Vernon Ave., Batavia.

St. Andrew's Church

The requiem-high masses for this week were for Mrs. Charles Wedow and Mrs. Eva Burkhart.

Our church was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when the marriage of Miss Caroline W. Foery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank X. Foery, of 1040 Portland Ave., to Mr. Albert Brien of 56 Seyle Terrace, was solemnized on Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. The solemn nuptial mass was celebrated by Rev. George W. Bekl, assisted by Rev. Wm. Brien, Ph. D., brother of the groom, as deacon, and Rev. Walter Foery, Ph. D., cousin of the bride, as subdeacon. Rev. Fr. Staub acted as master of ceremonies, and Rev. Fathers Edelman and Hughes were in the sanctuary. The brides attendants were Miss Irene Gang of Syracuse, as maid of honor; Miss Dorothy A. Foery, sister of the bride and Miss Edna Brien, sister of the groom acted as bridesmaids. Miss Evelyn C. Kastner, niece of the groom, was flower girl. The groom's attendants were Mr. Clarence Kimball of Syracuse, as best man; Mr. Robert Gang of Syracuse, Mr. Charles H. Geyer, Mr. Peter J. Reinhart Jr., and Mr. Thomas O'Brien as ushers. After the ceremony, breakfast was served to the immediate families at the home of the brides parents, 1040 Portland Ave. Prenuptials were:

a dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Charles H. Geyer; linen shower by Edna Brien; dinner and variety shower by Miss Irene Gang of Syracuse; dinner at the Onondaga Hotel by Mr. Clarence Kimball and Mr. Robert Gang of Syracuse, a luncheon by Miss Dorothy Foery; men's furnishing shower by Mr. Peter J. Reinhart, Jr.; variety shower by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Brien, a kitchen shower by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hussey and a luncheon by Miss Alma Englert. Mr. and Mrs. Brien left for a western trip and will be at home to their friends after November 15th at 38 Chapin St.

Friday evening our Young Ladies' Society held a Marquise Halloween Party. The hall was artistically decorated with leaves, cornstalks and lanterns. Many games were played and a luncheon was served. An enjoyable time was had by all.

Saturday evening at 7.45 o'clock there will be October devotions and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Next Tuesday evening, devotions to St. Rita will be held at 7.45 o'clock and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Last Tuesday evening, the Rosary Society held a Halloween prize Pedro in the church hall. There was a large crowd in attendance. The following won prizes: Gent's first prize, Mr. H. Klem; second prize, Mr. Leo Beucaire; third prize, Mr. C. Swartele and fourth prize, Mr. Foss; Ladies' first prize, Miss Rose Limpert; 2nd prize, Louise Klinger; 3rd prize, Miss E. Reischel and fourth prize, Miss Aurelia Savard. After the Pedro, luncheon was served, and a musical program was given.

Sacred Heart.

At Sacred Heart Church Tuesday morning, at 8.30 o'clock Catherine A. Naylor became the wife of Frederick J. Schmitt.

Nuptial mass was celebrated by Rev. G. V. Burns, pastor of the church. Rev. Father Mason was in the sanctuary. During the mass a solo was sung by Theodore LaPalm.

The bride was attired in white Georgette crepe over soft satin trimmed with pearls and chantilly lace and wore a bridal veil, cap fashion with lilies of the valley. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. She was attended by her sister, Miss Anna C. Naylor, who wore pink crepe meteor and a black velvet picture hat.

The groom was attended by his brother, Philip Schmitt. The ushers were F. Ray Scherer and Victor J. Yawman, cousin of the groom.

The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl necklace with a diamond pendant. To the groomsman he gave diamond stickpins and to the ushers signet pins. The bride gave her maid of honor a gown and Esther Prozeller, as par-
