When the sixty-fourth congress convened for its first session some new senators made their initial bow as national legislators.

Although this is Mr. Phelan's first visit to Washington as a member of congress, he has for many years been a power in California politics.

The new senator is a native of California, fifty-six years of age and a man of great wealth.

What with state problems and border troubles Governor James Edward Ferguson has had a rather strenuous time since he took office nearly a year ago.

Governor Ferguson is considerable of a character in his way. He had never held public office when he stamped the state last year, but he had no trouble in beating his Democratic rival at the primaries.

The Texas chief executive is a native of the Lone Star state and is fifty-six years old. He was born on a farm, but at the age of sixteen went to California where he hunted for gold.

Governor Ferguson aside from being a banker is largely engaged in farming.
