Some Bargains in Furs

In the Basement

A very good assortment of fur sets, separate muffs and scarfs will be found in the Basement. These are marked at special prices.

Separate muffs in black Japanese fox at $2.98, $3.98, $4.98, $5.98, $6.98 and $7.98.

Natural cony sets at $6.98.

Natural raccoon sets at $7.98.

Natural gray fox sets at $9.98.

Natural wolf sets at $10.98.

A number of fur scarfs--not the very latest style--have been marked at prices so low it seems almost like giving them away. In these days of fur trimmings, fur hats, fur everywhere, no end of uses for these scarfs will suggest themselves. Some women will want them for fur collars and cuffs, others will cut them in strips and make fur and satin muffs, or fur turbans, or perhaps one of those dashing fur skating sets. Squirrel, kolinsky, fox, Jap mink and muskrat are among the furs.

The very low prices will surprise you. Basement.

ST. MARY

Masses on Sunday will be held as follows: 6, 7, 8, 30, 9.30 and 10.45 o'clock. Vespers at 3.30 and Sunday school at 3 p. m.

The funeral of James Kennedy, who died at his home, 93 South Union Street, last Sunday, was held on Wednesday morning at 8.30 from the house and at 9 o'clock from this church. Solemn high mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Fitzsimons, assisted by Rev. Thomas F. Connors of the Blessed Sacrament church as deacon and Rev. John M. Sellinger, assistant rector of St. Mary's as sub-deacon. He was a member of the Holy Name Society, C. M. B. A. and other societies. Mr. Kennedy was a member of St. Mary's from the time of its erection until his death.

Our school reopened on Wednesday morning instead of Tuesday as was planned on account of the fire.

It will be pleasant news for the members of the parish to know that the Sisters who were injured at Sunday's fire are getting along nicely, after the severe shock which they underwent.

We cannot help but mention the good work done by the members of the Y. M. A., and others in rescuing the Sisters by placing a ladder against the rear porch. Had not this been done there would undoubtedly have been more serious consequences.

Art classes will be resumed at the Convent of Mercy, South St., Saturday afternoon from 1 to 5 o'clock and on Monday and Tuesday evenings, January 10th and 11th, from 6 to 9 o'clock.

Corpus Christi.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Welch took place Monday morning.

There will be a meeting of the Young Ladies' Sodality next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

At the next regular meeting of Br. 139, C. M. B. A., Jan. 11th, installation of officers will take place.

Branch 251, L. C. B. A., and Council 40, C. R. & B. A., will also install officers at the next regular meeting January 11th.

Arrangements are all completed for the reception to be given by the Ladies' Catholic Benevolent Association of this city, to be held at Hotel Seneca, January 12th. From present indications this bids fair to be the greatest event of the season in fraternal circles.

St. Boniface.

The Ladies' Sacred Heart Society held an important meeting on last Sunday afternoon.

Extra monthly collection will be taken up at all masses on Sunday. The seat diagram lists will also be distributed at these masses.

At the 7.30 o'clock mass on Sunday morning, Jan. 9th, the Young Ladies' sodality will go to Holy Communion in a body. The members will as usual assemble in the Parish Hall at 7.15 o'clock.

The annual election and installation of officers of the St. Herman's Benevolent Association took place at the Parish Hall on Wednesday evening.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Blasia Peters, aged 91 years, of 114 Averill Avenue, was held from this church last Friday morning at 9 o'clock. She leaves four sons, William H. of New York city, Joseph F. of Lead, S. D., Alois J. of Omaha, Neb., and Francis H. of Portland, Ore., and one daughter Miss M. Theresa Peters of this city.

The death of Edward W. Vollmer, aged 17 months, infant son of Edward and Theresa Vollmer of 76 Diem St., took place at the family home on Sunday. The funeral was held at 9.30 o'clock from our church on Tuesday morning.

The Aid Society of our church at their last meeting, decided to hold a pedro party under the auspices of the Holy Name Society. The date will be announced in the near future.

The St. Boniface Young Men's Club have innovated a new recreation for the indulgence of their members called "Volley Ball." The instigator of this new pastime is their zealous moderator, Rev. Geo. Schmitt who has inspired among the club members interest and enthusiasm to a high degree which resulted in the formotion of a Volley Ball League, games being played every Monday and Wednesday evening. The four teams comprising the league are as follows: "Yale" (Blue and White) Rev. George Schmitt, Capt.; "Princeton" (Orange and Black) Wm. Kreckel, Capt.; "Harvard" (Crimson) Carl Schottsmiller, Capt.; "Cornell" (Red and Black) Ray Erdle, Capt. The quick and alert Yale boys, captained by our moderator through clever team work and good leadership now hold first place honors. At the close of the season a supper will be served in their community rooms to the members of the League in honor of the victorious and first champions of this new sport. Our moderator will donate a valuable and handsome pennant to the winning team. Prof. Pompfudoluwioz's orchestra has given promise to furnish music on the occasion of this final rally.

The members and friends of the Young Men's Club were given a big treat on New Years' Day which was the annual Open House Day. Refreshments and lunch were at all times within boarding house reach. The Holly and greens gave the club rooms a most florated appearance. Each member is requested to attend the next meeting at which time the annual election of officers will take place.

St. Andrew's Church

Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock, a requiem high mass was offered for the deceased members of the Demer family.

Friday evening services were held in honor of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Next Sunday, the members of the Holy Name Society are invited to receive Holy Communion at the 7.30 o'clock mass.

Next Tuesday evening at 7.45 o'clock services will be held, consisting of the beginning of the novena to St. Rita and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. This novena will be held every Tuesday evening for nine consecutive weeks.

Next Thursday evening, January 13th, a pedro party and dance will be held under the auspices of the C. M. B. A., Branch 285, at the parish hall. As a great number of tickets have been distributed, a large crowd is expected. The following committee is in charge: William Lane, chairman; Anthony Limpert, Frank Schlinger, William Richter and John Streb.

Wednesday evening, the Holy Name Society held an important meeting at which the nomination and election of officers took place. The following were elected: Spiritual Adviser, Rev. George W. Eckl; President, Henry Schleuter; vice president, Jacob Bauer; Secretary, Anthony Wendelgass; Treasurer, Raymond Parry; marshall, Sam Schoeneman. The following were appointed for delegates to the State Federation of the Catholic Societies: Jacob Bauer, Henry Schleuter and Frank Schlinger. After the meeting cards were played and a luncheon served.

Holy Redeemer.

Last Wednesday the Young Ladies' Sodality held a Christmas social. They had a large Christmas tree and luncheon was served. A good time was had by all those who attended.

Last Sunday our pastor announced to the congregation that a card would be given to parents who have a child to be baptized a week before the baptism takes place so the father of the child can fill it out either at home or at the rectory.

Thursday there was a month's mind requiem mass for Mr. Wm. Merkel.

Thursday afternoon and evening confessions were heard.

Friday, being the first Friday of the month, communion was given out at the 5.30 o'clock mass and at 8 o'clock the Sacred Heart society received Holy Communion in a body and in the evening there was an hour of Adoration.

The Southern Minstrel show which was given by the Alumni of our school New Years eve and night was indeed a grand success.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Florack of Geneva who have been visiting relatives here for the holidays have returned home.
