

Two Different Effects

The quality of food is very largely determined by the ingredients in the baking powder with which it is made. Cream of tartar baking powders, such as Royal, add only healthful qualities to the food.

The cream of tartar of Royal Baking Powder as used in food has the same wholesome effect on the digestive system as the cream of tartar in grapes, from which it is derived.

On the other hand, it is in evidence that objectionable mineral residues exist in food made with alum or phosphate baking powders.

There is a clause on baking powder labels which names all the ingredients. Read it and let it guide you.

FOR AFTERNOONS.

A Dashing Three Piece Suit
Appropriate for Young Ladies.

A LA MILITAIRE

Belge blue broad-tooth fashions this suit, with its clever introduction of black and white checkerboard ribbon. The coat is finished with a cartridge belt outlined by bits of hand embroidery done in silver thread. The draped skirt apparently buttons on to the topers with broadcloth balls. The pressed beaver hat and its jaunty ostrich pompon, together with white-topped boots, are in keeping with the spirit of this suit.

JANUARY COMFORT.

Warm Wrappers For Elderly People
This Frosty Weather.

You know you have "felt a draft" in the chignon and lace thing which was given you last Christmas. You said just yesterday that the Dresden slippers gave you cold feet. Now comes a season of lacerated affairs made of cloth which are warm enough to keep the shivers away. They are every bit as frilly and dainty as the cold neckties. You ask if they wash well. The net ruffles and collars are made detachable for that very purpose, and the all-gloss and French danel can be cleaned at will. The thoughtful woman has been careful about her choice of colors for the wrappers for elderly people. A delicate blue corduroy is made into a bed sack with short sleeves and a cutaway front which cannot become wrinkled. Corduroy for both robes is her own idea, and this she extends even to ordinary slippers to match, all made with care and fine sewing, with cozy soles and tassels and enveloping collars.

All the old-fashioned sewing has been done on ruffles for the warm sacks, such as whipping and cross stitching, fine hemming and binding. An ingenious, thoughtful gown is the Pullman robe made of substantial dark silk lined with a cheering color. These robes will make a tourist much more handsome than the sleepless folks usually appear. They have capacious pockets for toilet articles, a close fitting hood and then a bag of the same silk which holds the whole gown folded compactly.

Convenient Shoe Box.

The chest-like shoe box, cretonne covered and lined, has a snappy addition this season in the shape of four pouch pockets on the inside of the cover, which are intended for slippers that heretofore have had the habit of losing their mates just when their owner was in the greatest hurry—getting themselves tangled up with the shoes in the bottom of the box in the most inconceivable way. The bottom of the chest is divided into two compartments, another convenient idea for keeping heavy and light shoes apart. As these boxes are on casters, and the top is upholstered sufficiently to make a comfortable seat, they are well worth while for bedroom conveniences.

Ginger Snaps.

One cupful shortening, one cupful molasses, one-half cupful hot water, one teaspoonful soda, one coffee cupful sugar, one tablespoonful ginger, one tablespoonful cinnamon, one egg, one-half cupful flour for stiff batter. Roll them and bake quickly. They will keep for weeks if locked up.

Rochester's Next Bell Directory Closes For the Printer on January 20th

After every Bell Directory goes to press we have some protests from the people who intended to have their names in it, but waited too long.

So, on this issue we are announcing the closing date a little longer in advance than usual.

However, there are only 15 working days more, including the 20th, so the time isn't very long.

Why not decide for Bell Service to-day? It is the logical telephone service in Rochester because it reaches a goodly majority of the telephone subscribers in the City. Then you will be sure your name will appear in the next book.
