Splendid Top Coats for Men

This is the last week of the special top coat values.

Men who contemplate getting a coat of this kind should get here at once and see what splendid values we have to offer.

Our special top coat at $11.85 is the greatest combination of style, service, comfort and value ever presented by us. We have already sent away scores of satisfied men with these wonderful coats.

They are made of fine all wool fabrics and finished with the greatest care. All seams are piped. Sleeves and shoulders are satin lined. Pockets are of the bellows type. A velvet collar gives the final touch of style—and they are only $11.85.

Still a few of the $10 and $12.50 men's top coats—mostly small sizes—for $8.50. Main Floor—Aisle C.

ST. MARY

The following officers of Council 23, C. R. & B. A., were installed at St. Mary's Hall, Tuesday evening by past Supreme Trustee P. F. Guinan: Spiritual Adviser, Rev. S. FitzSimons; Chancellor, Mrs. Jane Sanders; Pres., E. J. Ryan; 1st Vice Pres., Raymond Roland; 2nd Vice Pres., Mrs. E. Blaesi; Rec. Sec'y., Mrs. M. B. Sharp; Assistant Rec. Sec'y., Miss E. Sharp; Fin. Sec'y., Mrs. M. F. Brennan; Treas., Miss M. L. Ferguson; marshal, Miss N. McMartin; Guard, Mr. E. McMenomy.

The members of the Confraternity of Mary and women of parish will receive holy communion at the 8.30 o'clock mass on Sunday. Every woman in the parish are invited to participate.

On Sunday the monthly collection for the school will be taken up at all masses. Each member of the parish should contribute his or her share to this worthy cause whether they have children at school or not.

A new convent for the Sisters of Mercy, teaching at Mt. Carmel and St. Augustine's schools has been leased on Woodward St. This was made necessary by the recent fire. St. Mary's teachers are at the convent on South St. Let us hope that some day we will be able to erect a new convent for the Sisters of Mercy.

The regular meeting of the Holy Name Society was held in the church hall last Sunday evening. Each man in the parish is invited to become a member of the Society. The following committee have been appointed to make arrangements for a smoker to be held in the near future: Dr. Ready, Wm. Carey, John Russell, M. Davin, J. J. Kenny, and Thos. F. Moore. The next meeting of the Society will be held on the 2nd Sunday in February, when officers for the ensuing term will be elected. Every member is urged to request to attend and bring a new member with him.

On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, January 24, 25 and 26th, St. Mary's Dramatic Club will present "Aunt Susan's", a three act farce, the proceeds of which will be turned over to the Sisters of Mercy. The affair will take place in the church hall on South St. As this is a most worthy cause every member of the parish should at least purchase one ticket. The price of admission is only 25c, which is within reach of all. The performances each night will begin at prompt 8.15 o'clock.

On Sunday the masses and Sunday school will be held at the usual hour.

The condition of Mother Benedict of the Sisters of Mercy who was severely burned in the convent fire in South St., recently is much improved, there being a possibility of her being discharged from the hospital the latter part of this week. Sister Dolores who was at the Homeopathic hospital with a broken ankle left on Wednesday. Mother Irene is still at St. Mary's Hospital and is slowly recovering from an injury to her ankle. Sister Zita was discharged from the hospital and last Saturday went to the Convent of the Holy Cross at Charlotte.

Elizabeth J. Meagher, widow of George W. Trott, died Thursday morning in her home, No. 1, 116 Mount Hope Avenue. She leaves four sons, Julius A., Martin M., George W. and Thomas F. Trott; five daughters, Mrs. William A. Attridge, Mrs. Thomas J. McCarthy, Gertrude M., M. Queen and Julia E. Trott; two sisters, Mrs. Mary Cummings and Mrs. John Vogt; fourteen grandchildren and two great grandchildren. She was a member of St. Herman's Council, C. W. B. L.; the Rosary Society of this church and Sherman's Command, U. V. R. U.

Corpus Christi

The requiem masses for this week were for Mrs. Mary McCarthy.

The annual statement was read at all the masses last Sunday, showing the splendid results obtained financially. Twelve thousand dollars was paid on the church debt last year.

Next Sunday the regular monthly school collection will be taken up at all the masses.

Tuesday evening Br. 139, C. M. B. A., held installation of officers in the church hall.

Br. 251, L. C. B. A., held installation of officers and a supper was held after. Mrs. Carmody, president of the branch was presented with a beautiful gold brooch, the gift of the officers who are associated with her. Miss Mary L. Moore made the presentation speech and told in a few well chosen words of their appreciation of her work and pleasure it gave them to be associated with her. Mrs. Carmody thanked the officers for the gift, which came as a surprise to her.

Council 40, C. R. & B. A., installed their officers recently. A card party and refreshments were held after.

The Young Ladies' Sodality are planning to hold a banquet. The date will be announced later.

Cathedral

At Cathedral Hall, on Monday night, Jan. 10, the Holy Name Society met and installed the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Frank M. Hanna; Vice Pres., William B. Moynihan; Sec'y., John Garrity; Spiritual adviser and Treas., Rev. J. Francis O'Hern.

At the hands of the Cathedral High School five, the Batavia High school boys went down to defeat, to a tune of 50-8. From the sound of the first whistle to the final call of time, the Cathedral boys had it their own way, seeming to locate the basket at will and without much opposition.

A large number of students and friends journeyed to Canandaigua to witness the game scheduled for Friday evening, Jan. 14th, between Cathedral High and Canandaigua Academy.

Keep it in mind, "Blessed Thomas More", a sacred drama, will be staged in Cathedral Hall, on Monday and Tuesday evenings, February 28 and 29th. This play will be presented by a talented and experienced cast under the supervision of Don Manning, a well known director. Reserve the dates and be there on either evening.

St. Andrew's Church

The requiem masses for this week were for Catherine Leckinger and James Kennedy.

Tuesday evening the L. C. B. A., held their regular semi-monthly meeting at which the installation of officers took place.

The funeral of Mrs. Jane Kiley was held Thursday morning at 9 o'clock. She leaves four daughters, Mrs. John Atkinson, Mrs. Daniel Doyle, Mrs. George Earnest and Mrs. Margaret Ringland; two sons, John and Edward Kiley; two sisters, Mrs. H. Gunn and Mrs. D. Duanigan of Lindsay, Ont., eleven grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Sunday will be regular communion Sunday for the St. Rita's Young Ladies' Sodality.

Next Tuesday evening, devotions to St. Rita will be held at 7.45 o'clock with benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Sacred Heart

The regular meeting of Ladies' Auxiliary, No. 166, Knights of St. John, was held on Monday evening, with a large attendance. After the meeting cards were played. Prizes were won by Mabel Hall, Alice Rendland and Eunice Eldridge.

On Thursday evening, Jan. 20, a joint installation of Ladies' Auxiliary and the Knights of St. John will be held in Sacred Heart Hall. After the installation a banquet will be held.

Holy Redeemer

Branch 58, C. M. B. A., installed the following officers on Monday evening, January 10th: Spiritual Adviser, Rev. J. F. Staub; Chancellor, Wilford Burger; Pres., Edmund Hilzinger; 1st vice pres., Harry F. Kleehammer; Rec. Sec'y., Henry Kleehammer; Fin. Sec'y., Cornelius Zwerlein; Treas., Frank J. Aman; marshal, Henry Richter, Sr.; Guard, Frank Pfeifer; trustees for 2 years, Chas. B. Widenman, Geo. Loeb, Peter Brouch; Entertainment committee; Walter Degler, Raymond Streb and Harry Brandt.

Luncheon and refreshments were served after the meeting to the members and visiting friends and speeches were made by Rev. J. F. Staub, law committee member Joseph Weis and financial committee member, Frances Lavory.
