Interesting Budget of Happenings Gathered by Our City Reporter

Cathedral.

The C. M. A., Basketball team defeated the Spencerport Independents Tuesday evening by a score of 107 to 15.

Bernard J. Costello, aged 44 years, a long time resident of this parish, died Sunday afternoon at the Hahnemann Hospital, and was buried from the home of his brother, Mark E. Costello of Lorimer St., Wednesday morning.

On Monday and Tuesday evening, the 28 and 29th the performance of "Blessed Thomas More," a sacred drama, written by one of our Sisters, will be held in the hall. The play will be presented by well-known people of the parish. A large number of tickets are out on sale and a good crowd is expected.

St. Mary's Church.

The first annual banquet of the Young Men's Association of our church was held on Wednesday evening, in the Church Hall, South St. The hall was beautifully decorated with American flags and hollywigs intermingled with colored electric lights which gave a beautiful effect.

Letters of regret on not being able to be present were received from Rev. Jos. Cameron and Rev. Edmund A. Rawlinson by President James Farrell, who after making a few preliminary remarks, introduced Toastmaster Frank Fleming, who thanked the members for the honor conferred upon him and complimented the members on the excellent progress they have made since their institution.

The first speaker to be called upon was the Rev. Simon Fitzsimons, pastor of the church.

The next speaker was Rev. Father Guilfoil, Spiritual Adviser of the association.

Angelo Newman entertained the audience by reciting poems and telling stories which made a decided hit.

George E. Noeth, founder of the Catholic Young Men's Club of St. Joseph's Church told of the hardships encountered in the early stages of the Association, and expressed the hope that some day the young men of St. Mary's would have as good a home as the young men of St. Joseph.

Rev. Dr. Nolan, who represented Bishop Hickey was the next speaker. He said in part: The patriotic men of this country are those whose hearts are filled with noble thoughts and that those men were Catholic men.

In conclusion of the banquet "Holy God We Praise Thy Name" was sung, and this ended the first annual banquet of the Young Men's Association of St. Mary's parish.

The banquet committee consisted of Harry J. Wilson, Chairman; John P. McCarthy, Jas. O'Rourke, Charles T. McCracken and Ray J. Zimmer, who are to be complimented on the successful outcome of the affair.

Coakley's Orchestra furnished the music.

The Pedro and Five Hundred party, held last Monday evening, under the auspices of the Confraternity of Mary, for the benefit of the Sisters of Mercy, was a success socially and financially.

The prizes at cards were won by the Misses M. Reiter, Margaret Vay, Barbara Klier and Marguerite Miller. The men's prizes were won by Joseph Weber, Joseph Barker, G. Gottenmeyer and W. Ehrmentrant.

At the last meeting of Br. 62, L. C. B. A., the following won prizes at cards: Mrs. Carrie Zueren, Mrs. M. McGivern and Edith Rielly. The next meeting will be held Thursday evening, March 2, when assessment 314 will expire and a guessing contest will take place.

A "Hard Time Social" was held by the St. Boniface Young Men's Club at their club rooms on Monday evening last. The costumes and make-up of the members resembled a gay frolic of the "Mardi Gras" Carnival.

On next Thursday afternoon and evening, confessions will be heard for those wishing to receive Holy Communion on Friday morning.

The St. Herman's Benevolent Association will hold their regular monthly meeting at the Parish Hall on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Don't forget your dues.

The Holy Name Society of our Church on Tuesday evening last, celebrated their "Genuchlichkeits-Fest" their annual banquet. The festivities took place in the school hall. A number of the young ladies of the parish generously offered their service, to transport the provisions and perishable and their duties were well performed.

The St. Boniface quartette entertained with warbling melodies and a solo was rendered by Mr. George Garry. A well composed sequel to "Tipperary" was introduced by Mr. Jacob Flugler.

The supper that was served to the prize winners of the L.C.B.A. held at St. Andrew's Hall, proved to be a very enjoyable affair, especially a comical sketch given by Mrs. Louise B. Kiefer, Mrs. Heutcher, Mrs. Elizabeth Hempel, Mrs. Mary G. Staub and Mrs. M. E. Foley. Vocal selections were given by Mrs. Elizabeth Hempel and Mrs. Bienlein. Prizes were awarded to the following for serving the most members: Mrs. Babel, Mrs. Henchen, Mrs. Mary G. Staub, Mrs. Anna Weber, Mrs. Kane, Mrs. Margaret Mattern and Mrs. Doyle.

Suddenly Went Blind!

That's what they said about a shrewd business man who called in an expert when he bought an auto, hired an architect when he built a home and sought the best tailor when he wanted a first class suit of clothes, but never did a bit of investigating when he wanted to place his insurance on his house and furniture, his store or his auto. Yes, he suddenly went blind. When the fires happened where was his company. Our companies have been through the worst conflagrations with flying colors. Wehn & Wedel, 209 Powers Building, represent the very best. Investigate. don't go blind on this important matter. Rochester phone 1539 Stone; Bell 1539 Main. Adv.

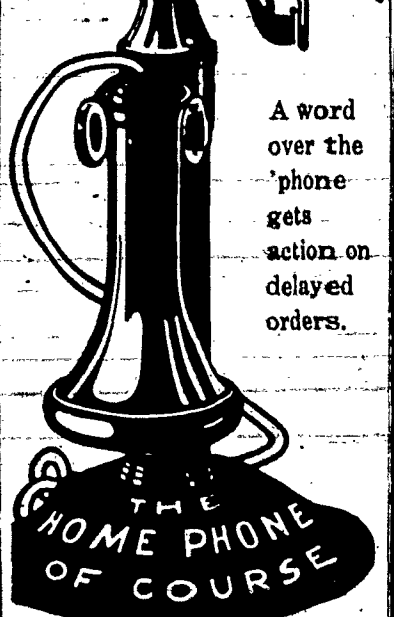

Extension of Term.

Owing to the popularity of the evening classes in the L. L. Williams Rochester Commercial School, the term will be extended four weeks longer than usual. This will give those who enroll Monday evening an opportunity to secure eight more weeks of tuition. Any Monday is a good time to enter the day classes in bookkeeping, shorthand and typewriting. Send for catalogue, 27 Church street. Adv.
