Where Van Tromp Died. Texel, the low lying island at the entrance to the Zuyder Zee, was the scene of much fierce fighting between Dutch and English in the seventeenth century. It was of Texel that one of the greatest of Dutch admirals, Van Tromp, lost his life in 1639 in an engagement with the British under Blake, and near the same spot, almost exactly twenty years after, De Ruyter was defeated in a desperate conflict with the British and French under Rupert and Torreres.

Rules for Lent.

The following circular letter was read in all churches of the diocese last Sunday:

The Holy Season of Lent begins on the 8th of March. All the week days of Lent are days of fasting on one meal with a moderate collation in the evening.

By dispensation, however, the use of flesh meat is allowed without restriction on Sundays and once a day on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, except on the Saturday of Ember week, and the Saturday of Holy week.

The practice of taking a small piece of bread with a cup of tea, coffee, chocolate, or the like, in the morning is permitted by indulgent. Likewise when the principal meal cannot be taken at midday, it is allowed to invert the order by taking the collation in the morning and the principal meal in the evening.

The use of eggs, milk, butter and cheese is allowed at the principal meal. By general custom in this country it is also tolerated at the collation, provided the quantity prescribed by the fast be not exceeded.

The following persons are exempt from the obligation of fasting: Young persons under twenty-one years of age, the aged, the sick, nursing women, those who are obliged to do hard labor, and all who through weakness cannot fast, without prejudice to their health.

Persons exempted from the obligation of fasting are not bound by the restrictions of using meat only at one meal on days on which its use is granted by dispensation.

By virtue of a special Indult given March 15, 1895, by the Holy See to the Bishops of the United States for ten years and renewed June 3, 1915, in favor of the working men of this country who find it difficult to observe the general law of abstinence, the use of flesh meat is granted on fast days both of them and to all the members of their family, except on all Fridays of the year, Ash Wednesday, Holy Week and the eve of Christmas; but for such as are obliged to fast, the privilege is restricted to one meal of the day.

Very sincerely in Christ, THOMAS, Bishop of Rochester.

Street Car Etiquette. A woman should get on a car ahead of a man, but when they leave it the man should descend first and be ready to give the woman his hand to help her to the ground. If the car is crowded and another man rises to give a seat to the woman escorted by a man the latter should lift his hat in recognition of the courtesy. If a woman is alone she should acknowledge the offer of a seat with a bow and a word of thanks. The man who is escorting a woman may pay her fare, but should they meet by chance it is not etiquette for him to do so. She Knew the Other Things. Church--You know there are things that money won't buy. Gotham--There are? "Certainly." "Well, I'll bet my wife don't know what they are."--Yonkers Statesman. Brier is Really Health. Brier pipes are not made from the wild rose briar. The name is a corruption of the French word bruyere (briar). The earliest briar pipes were introduced into England in 1859 and were made from the roots of the French white briar (Erica arborea).--New York World. Good Likeness. "Did Miss Sourziri have her photographs taken yesterday?" "Yes." "Good likeness?" "Yes, must have been, for she refused to have them and demanded another sitting."--London Globe. The Only Result.
