Street Car Etiquette. A woman should get on a gar abead of a man, but when they leave it the man should descend first and be ready to give the women his hand to help her to the ground. If the car is crowd ed and another man rises to give a reat to the woman escorted by a man the latter should lift his hat in recognition of the courtesy. If a woman is alone she should acknowledge the of fer of a sent with a bow and a word of thanks. The man who is escorting a woman pays her fare, but should they meet by chance it is not etiquette for him to do so.

Candor and Manners. Pitt was once canvassing for himself when he came to a blacksmith's shop. "Sir." said he to the blacksmith. will you favor me with your vote?" "Mr. Pitt," said the son of Vulcan, "I admire your head, but hang your heart," "Mr. Blacksmith," said Pitt. "I admire your cander, but hang your manners.
