St. Marcellus.

It was an enthusiastic lot of members who attended the meeting of the Holy Name Society on last Monday night. It seems that the change in meeting nights from the 2nd Sunday to the 2nd Monday of the month had the desired effect, as there was quite a large number present when President Ready called the meeting to order. The newly appointed President urged those present to make an effort to secure new members, and thereby assist the officers in their work as outlined by them. After the routine of business had been transacted, President Ready introduced Eugene J. Dwyer, who was the first speaker of four, to address the members of the Society. Mr. Dwyer touched upon the "Life of St. Patrick and his Trials," and urged every Catholic man to inform himself on the doctrines of his Faith and the Catholic church. He also touched upon the "Divorce Question," and pointed out the evil effects it has on the contracting parties and what it meant to the children of those who seek divorce. After the conclusion of his speech, which was an interesting one from beginning to end he was heartily applauded. Rev. Father Fitzsimons then moved that a rising vote of thanks be extended to Mr. Dwyer. On Monday evening, April 10th, Rev. Otto Geiger will address the members of the Society his subject being, "Blessed Thomas More."

Louis Baker, a member of the Holy Name Society died on last Monday. On Tuesday evening Father Fitzsimons and a delegation from the Society went to the home of the deceased to pay their last respects. His funeral took place at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning from the church.

The regular meeting of the Young Men's Association of the parish held Monday evening in the Club Rooms on South St. was a hummer in every sense of the word. It was the annual meeting of the Association at which the election of officers for the year 1916, took place. Nearly 100 votes were cast in selecting officers and when the smoke of battle cleared away it was found that the following officers, although a trifle battle scarred, had been selected to pilot the association through thick and thin for one year: President, Jas. H. Farrell; first vice pres., N. Dixon; second vice-president, L. Leflett; third vice president, J. Kavanaugh; fourth vice president, R. Connor; Sec'y., J. C. Sullivan; Treas., T. F. Vogt; entertainment committee, Norman J. Dixon, chairman; House committee, Leo Leflett, chairman; athletic Com., John A. Kavanaugh, chairman; membership Comm., Raymond Connors. The treasurer will be chairman of the Finance committee. There was considerable interest taken by the members in selecting their officers this year. A year ago only 45 took part in the election, when at last Monday's election nearly one hundred participated. It is safe to predict that the organization will prosper under the guidance of the newly selected officers. The chief interest in the election was that of the four vice-presidents which offices were created by the adoption of a new constitution a short time ago.

Jas. J. Kelly, died at the family residence, 32 Savannah St., on Tuesday evening, March 14th, 1916. He leaves five daughters, Sister Marie of St. Patrick's Orphan Asylum, Mrs. P. J.
