Men's Top Coats of Superior Value

Top coats have become one of the staples of this Men's Furnishing section. Men look to us for these much wanted spring garments just as they do for the haberdashery they require.

We have made a reputation for giving unusual value in these coats and we are living up to it this spring. There is no deterioration in workmanship or materials. The style and the finish are there—everything that could be desired.

These top coats are made with velvet collar—self-material for another collar is stowed away in one of the pockets for later use if desired.

Blue, gray, light mixtures and heather mixtures.

Interesting Budget of Happenings Gathered by Our City Reporter

St. Mary's.

The members of the Rosary Society will receive holy communion in a body at the 7 o'clock mass on Sunday morning.

Lenten services are held every Wednesday and Friday evenings at 7:45 o'clock and 12:10 every noon.

On Thursday evening, March 23rd, several ladies of the parish met at the residence of Mrs. Thos. F. Moore and organized "The Willing Workers". The purpose of this organization is to furnish linen for the Sisters of Mercy who teach at St. Mary's school.

Mrs. Geo. M. Andrews was instrumental in forming the organization whose officers are as follows: Pres., Mrs. Thos. F. Moore; Vice-Pres., Miss Anna Conlon; Treas., Mrs. George M. Andrews.

On Saturday morning last seven postulants received the white veil of the Order of the Sisters of Mercy. The services were held in the church at 8 o'clock. The altar was decorated with callalilies and white carnations. Relatives and friends of the postulants filled the church.

The postulants were: Miss Mary Tolan of Rochester, to be known in religion as Sister M. Joseph; Miss Irene White of Boston, to be known as Sister M. Casimir; Miss Mary O'Connell of Elmira, to be known as Sister M. Jerome; Miss Anna Carroll of Pompey, to be known as Sister M. Hillary; Miss Mary Lavey of Auburn, to be known as Sister M. Martha; Miss Teresa Major of Rochester, to be known as Sister M. Teresa, and Miss Sylvia Doris of the Twenty-third Ward, to be known as Sister M. Gregory.

Bishop Thomas F. Hickey conducted the services, assisted by Rev. Simon FitzSimons, Rev. J. Sellinger and Rev. J. Guilfoyle.

The sermon was preached by Bishop Hickey. At the close of the service a reception for friends of the novices was conducted in the convent of the Sisters of Mercy in South Street.

"A Trip Through Dixie", is the title of the Minstrel show, with which the Young Men's Association of the parish will entertain its friends on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, April 24, 25, and 26th. The show will be in two parts. The first part will consist of a short vaudeville sketch under the direction of Stuart A. Birmingham and the second part will be the minstrels. Joseph Kurtz will have charge of the Minstrel Show and is busy drilling the entire company. An opening number, consisting of several popular ballads will be sung by a chorus of thirty voices and soloists of merit will also give numbers. The committee in charge is as follows: Chairman, Thomas F. Vogt; Pres., Leo Leflet; stage, John C. Sullivan and Leo Fleming; tickets, Ray Connor and Joseph J. Boland. The costumes are being designed and made under the supervision of Daniel C. Sullivan.

St. Boniface.

Confessions will be heard next Thursday afternoon and evening for those wishing to receive Holy Communion the first Friday of the month, the masses will be at 6 and 8 o'clock.

The St. Herman's Benevolent Association will hold their regular monthly meeting on next Wednesday evening, April 5th, at the Parish Hall at 8 o'clock. The members are reminded to pay their dues.

A most interesting and well attended meeting was held last Sunday evening by the Holy Name Society at our Parish hall. The president of the Holy Name Society of Blessed Sacrament parish was the principal speaker.

The St. Boniface Commandery pin artists in the Knights of St. John Bowling League on last Monday evening at Genesee Hall, defeated the St. Louis Commandery in all three contested games.

The former displayed their true calibre by picking their many splits.

The Boston Pool Tournament now being held by the St. Boniface Young Men's Club at their Club rooms is drawing a keen interest among the followers of this game. The next match will be played Sunday afternoon. All members should endeavor to attend the next regular monthly meeting on Wednesday evening.

The death of George H. Maul, aged 36 years, took place on Monday night. The funeral was held Thursday morning at 9 o'clock from this church. He is survived by his wife, Elizabeth Maul; one daughter, Alice Maul; two sisters, Mrs. Carrie Dorsey and Mrs. Frank Bechle and one brother, Louis Maul.

St. Peter and Paul.

Rev. Wm. Stauder of this parish was subdeacon at the funeral mass of Mother Augusta Pardow at the Academy of the Sacred Heart in Prince St., last Monday morning.

The sermon on last Wednesday evening was delivered by Rev. John Masseth of St. Bridget's church.

The evening services on Wednesday and Friday evenings are very well attended.

On Thursday morning at 7 o'clock a requiem mass was said for Mrs. Mary Schumacher and at 8 o'clock for Mrs. Adaline Stickle, both masses were gifts of Br. 62, L. C. B. A.
