Cassiterite in California. A description of an occurrence of cassiterite (tinstone) in San Diego county, Cal. has recently been published by the United States geological survey as bulletin 629 P. Mr. Waldemar T. Schaffer, the author has recently visited the locality, but does not consider the deposit of industrial importance. A small quantity of crystals found near Oak Grove, San Diego county, in the spring of 1915, is all the cassiterite so far obtained. The region, however, offers possibilities to the gem miner. The same pegmatite dike in which the cassiterite crystals were found contains also tourmaline and columbite.

Repair for Broken Brake Handle. The handle on the brake lever of an automobile broke at the point indicated in the illustration, and, knowing that the break was due to faulty design I decided to make up a new, entirely different handle...

Method of Repairing Brake Lever. A piece of sheet brass one sixteenth of an inch thick, was procured and cut to the proper size and shape. The dimensions being taken from the portions of the broken handle. The four holes shown were not drilled until the piece was bent into shape. After fitting the new handle it was carefully buffed and polished.

Refined Brakes. When brakes have just been refitted it is often difficult to get them to hold properly. This is due to the fact that the lining lacks glazed surface. Often times a little oil applied to the brakes in such a case will help to produce the desired frictional surface. This will not be apparent immediately, but after the brakes have been applied a few times will produce the desired effect.

Care of Spark Plugs. The porcelain of the spark plug will sometimes crack, and permit a short circuit within the plug. This is often hard to detect, unless the porcelain is removed and carefully cleaned. The slightest indication of a fracture is sufficient to condemn the porcelain.

Big Electrical Range. The largest electrical range in the world, installed in the State hospital Warren Springs, Mont. cooks meals for 1,500 persons daily.

HELPFUL HINTS FOR HOUSEWIVES

Device For Hanging Heavy Rugs For Beating.

An easy way to put a heavy carpet or rug over a clothesline is to fasten two pulleys, one to the house and the other to a post or tree or on two posts and hang the line between them. Then while the line is on the ground, pull the rug over the line, says Popular Mechanics. A very heavy rug can be easily hung in this manner. The line should be long enough to reach over the pulleys and to the ground and have end enough at both supports for fastening.

Oyster Souillon. Chop one quart of oysters (washed and freed from bits of shell) add the liquid strained through a cheesecloth, six cups of cold water, two slices of onion, two stalks of celery and a bit of mace. Let heat over a hot fire to the boiling point and boil five minutes. Then strain and press out all the liquid, add two cupfuls of chicken broth, about a teaspoonful of salt and half a teaspoonful of paprika. Serve hot with a tablespoonful of whipped cream on the top of the soup in each cup. Use the oysters with fresh fish (white) for croquettes or a creamed dish.

Cheese Pie. Cut two-thirds of a small loaf of stale bread in one-third inch slices and remove crusts, then cut slices in halves crosswise. Arrange a layer in a buttered baking dish which is not too deep, cover with a layer of milk cheese cut in one-eighth inch slices and sprinkle with salt and paprika, repeating until you have the desired quantity. Beat two eggs slightly, add a cupful of milk and pour over the contents of the baking dish. Bake in a moderate oven until the cheese is melted and deliciously browned, which will require about thirty minutes.

Macaroni and Cheese. Break one cupful of macaroni into uniform pieces. Drop into boiling water and boil until tender. Drain and rinse in cold water. Place in a buttered baking dish. Make a cream sauce using two tablespoonfuls of flour, two tablespoonfuls of butter, one cupful of milk, salt and pepper. Melt one cupful of grated cheese in the cream sauce. Pour over the macaroni. Sprinkle with breadcrumbs and bake.

Baked Bean Rabbit. Melt two tablespoonfuls of butter, add one-half teaspoonful of salt, one-fourth teaspoonful of paprika, one-half cupful of milk and one cupful of cold mashed baked beans. Stir until thoroughly heated, then add one-half cupful of grated mild cheese and a teaspoonful of good table sauce. Stir until the cheese is melted; then serve on small rounds of toasted bread or crackers.

Custard Pudding. Spread slices of stale sponge or plain cup cake with strawberry or raspberry jam and lay them lightly in a buttered pudding dish. Beat three eggs; add half a teaspoonful of salt, two tablespoonfuls of sugar and two cupfuls of milk; mix and turn over the cake. Let bake in a moderate oven until the center is firm. When cold turn from the dish and serve with whipped cream.

Baked Lima Beans. Soak the beans overnight. In the morning boil until half done, then put into a bean pot or stone jar, mix in eight tablespoonfuls of olive oil and one and one-half teaspoonfuls of salt to one quart of beans, add one table spoonful of molasses, cover with water and bake in a steady oven for several hours, adding more water as it evaporates, but letting it stew down quite dry at the last.

Stuffed Potatoes. A nice way to vary baked potatoes is to cut a slice from the top of each and scrape out the inside. Mash, season with salt, pepper, chopped parsley and butter and heat in a little hot milk. Add two well beaten whites of eggs. Re-fill the skins, sprinkle with grated cheese and place in a hot oven for about six minutes.

Baked Indian Pudding. Two third cupful of cornmeal, two eggs, one cupful brown sugar, one teaspoonful salt, large one-half teaspoonful each of ginger, cinnamon and nutmeg. Mix together and add to one quart scalding milk. Bring to a boil, add raisins, pour in buttered pan, put small lump of butter over top and bake half hour or more.

Graham Bread. Two cupfuls of buttermilk, two ten spoonfuls of soda, one-half cupful of brown sugar, one-third cupful of shortening, salt, two heaping tablespoonfuls of cornmeal, Graham flour for medium stiff batter. Steam two hours and brown in oven.
