Annual Sale of Sample Handkerchiefs

The sample handkerchiefs are ready for you once more--about 25,000 of them.

They represent practically all kinds of handkerchiefs from the simple styles for children up to women's fancy handkerchiefs that usually sell for $1.

Special prices are 1c, 2c, 3c, 5c, 7c or 4-for 25c, 9c or 3 for 25c, 12 1-2c, 18c or 3 for 50c, 25c and 39c.

At these prices savings average from 1-3 to 1-2.

When you stop to consider that these sample handkerchiefs, and particularly when there is hand work on them, are the best that can be produced of their class--for the maker always puts the very best he has into his samples--you are really getting superior handkerchiefs at big savings in price.

It is your opportunity to stock up for the summer in a practical and economical way.

St. Mary's.

On Sunday morning at the 7 o'clock mass the Young Men's Association of the parish will receive Holy Communion in a body.

The funeral of Robert J. Jackson, who died at the family residence, No. 158 William St., Saturday April 22nd, took place on Wednesday morning at 8:30 from the house and at 9 o'clock from the church. He leaves his father, Henry F. Jackson; three sisters, Mrs. C. R. Hunt, Minnie and Winifred Jackson and two brothers, Harry and John Jackson.

On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of this week the Young Men's Association of the parish gave a Minstrel Show in the church hall on South Street, to packed houses. The performance was given in two parts, the first composed a musical mixture arranged and loaned by Wm. B. McCallum, Mgr. of the Avon Theater. It was entitled "Joining the Show", the scene representing a country hotel. All the parts were well taken, particularly the solo numbers. The second part was entitled "A Trip Through Dixie" and was staged under the direction of Joseph Kurtz and introduced the regulation old time minstrels with several improvements.

Joseph J. Boland was interlocutor. The end men were Martin J. Vogt, John M. Dooley, Norman J. Dixon, Harold H. Connor, Sherwood O. Peartree and Chas. Hawkins; soloists, John Norton, Geo. J. Spillane, Chas. Fitzmorris and Frank J. King, who were assisted by a competent chorus. Special mention is deserving to Martin J. Vogt, who sang the "Alabama Jubilee" in a most creditable manner. His dancing was also excellent. Those who had charge are to be congratulated on the successful outcome of the affair.

Miss Mary A. Burley, of 100 Savannah St., and Mr. James Hickey, were united in marriage at St. Mary's Church on Tuesday April 25th, at 12 o'clock by the Rev. Simon Fitzsimons. The marriage of honor was Mrs. Nellie Martin and the best man Joseph Haverly. After the ceremony was performed Mr. and Mrs. Hickey left for an extended Western trip after which they will return to Rochester and be at home at 100 Savannah St.

St. Michael's.

Sunday morning at the 7:30 o'clock mass the members of the Ladies' Auxiliary, Knights of St. George, will receive holy communion in a body.

The funeral of Mrs. Eva Schwind took place Monday morning at 9 o'clock. Requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. M. J. Hargather. Besides her husband she leaves one son, Jacob A. Schwind; three daughters, Mrs. Teresa Sheppard and the Misses Hannah and Lillian Schwind and four grandchildren. She was a member of Br. 104, L. C. B. A., the Rosary Society and the Women's Sodality.

The marriage of Mr. George Roth to Miss Florence Kirchgassner took place Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock. Nuptial mass was celebrated by Rev. M. J. Hargather. The members of the choir sang the mass of which Mr. Roth is a member. The bride was attended by Miss Lillian Staub and the groom by Mr. Frank Roth. The ushers were Mr. Chas. Eisele and Mr. Edward Staub. A reception was held at the home of the bride 106 1-2 Scrantom St.

There will be a regular meeting of the Young Ladies' Sodality Sunday afternoon.

The funeral of Mrs. Margaret Hoefen took place Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. Solemn requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. Francis Hoefen, brother-in-law of the deceased, assisted by Rev. M. J. Hargather as deacon and Rev. Adolph Edelman as sub-deacon. The members of the choir sang the requiem mass. She is survived by her husband, John Hoefen; her mother, Mrs. Schnitzer; one son, William Hoefen; one daughter, Jeanette Hoefen; four sisters Miss Catherine Schnitzer, Miss Josephine Englert; Mrs. A. Knapp and Mrs. J. Arnold; four brothers, Joseph, August and John Schnitzer of this city and George Schnitzer of New York City. She was a member of Ladies' Auxiliary, Knights of St. George; Com 43, and Branch 104, L. C. B. A. Interment was made at Holy Sepulcher cemetery.

The marriage of Mr. James Shea to Miss Ida Wittman took place Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock.

Cathedral.

At a recent meeting of the Catholic Baseball League promoters, it was announced that they had secured two of the diamonds in Genesee Valley Park for every Saturday afternoon. Three games are scheduled for each day starting on May 10th. The teams are composed of the best local stars who have been prominent in Rochester's amateur and semi-professional teams.

The seventeenth annual banquet of the Cathedral School Association will be held at Cathedral Hall, Tuesday evening, May 9th. No reunion was held last year, and it is therefore expected to be of more interest to the Alumni this year.

St. Boniface.

The meeting of the Holy Name Society was postponed until Sunday evening April 30th, at 7 o'clock.

Confessions will be heard next Thursday afternoon and evening on account of the First Friday of the month.

A "Card Party" was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Spacher of Goebel Pl., on Friday evening in honor of Miss Florence Stimeling of Mazda Terrace.

On Saturday evening last, the "Newly-weds" and their husbands were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. Tallman of Burkard Pl.

The regular monthly meeting of the St. Herman's Benevolent Association will take place on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. The members of the Young Men's club together with their friends are reminded of the annual "Hilarity"--the "Club Banquet" to be held at the parish hall Monday evening, May 1st. A first-class caterer has been engaged to satisfy the appetites of the guests and the menu will call for an abundance of eats and sweets.

The Roastmaster for the evening is well primed to meet all emergencies and will introduce several speakers of a wide reputation. The Harmony Orchestra will furnish incidental music for the popular parodies. President William Schenk and the banquet committee are making all efforts to make this affair a social success.

The "Hopeless" Sewing Club hoped to meet for their weekly gathering last week Friday but it was necessary to postpone the meeting until next Friday evening when it will be held at the home of Miss Florence Link of South Ave.

St. Peter and Paul.

The members of Br. 62, L. C. B. A., will celebrate their 25th anniversary next Sunday morning by receiving Holy Communion in a body at the 8:15 o'clock mass. All members are requested to meet in the session room at 8 o'clock sharp.

The members of the Young Ladies' Sodality will have their annual supper on Monday evening, May 1st, at 6:30 in the basement of the school, an entertainment will follow the supper. All members are invited.

Tickets are selling rapidly for the "Minstrel Show" to be given by the choir of this church on the evenings of May 24th and 25th, at the Baker Theater for the benefit of the church.

There are still a few tickets left for the Pedro and Five Hundred party to be given by the combined Auxiliaries of Rochester at the Powers Banquet Hall on Monday evening, May 8th. Forty beautiful prizes will be given away, come and secure one.

Regular meeting of Ladies' Auxiliary, No. 44, will be held on Monday evening, May 1st, when all members are asked to be present for a special cause. Lunch will be served after the meeting and cards will also be played for several nice prizes. Don't fail to come.

Coryus Christ.

The monthly debt collection will be taken up at all the masses next Sunday.

Br. 251, L. C. B. A., are preparing for a reception and card party to be held in the church hall on Monday evening May 22nd. The engagement is announced of Raymond J. Tierney and Miss Walsh of Garson Ave.
