S. S. Peter and Pauls.

On Wednesday evening, May 3rd, the silver jubilee of Br. 62, L. C. B. A., was celebrated. The banquet was attended by over 200 members. The large dining hall in the basement of the school was tastefully decorated with white and yellow and the tables ornamented with large bouquets of flowers and candles. At each place was placed a menu card done in silver and white. Seated at the head table were Rev. Wm. Stauder and the officers of Br. 82, C. M. B. A., who were guests 25 years ago, when the Branch was instituted. Mr. Peter A. Vay, Mr. John Galen, Mr. John Strasser, N. J. Miller, Mr. Kraft and Mr. Fleck. At the next table, which had a large cake in the center with 25 candles were the charter members. The ladies in charge of the dinner and decorations were highly complimented on the success of their labor and arrangements for handling the guests. The evening's program was opened by the president, Louise Meyers, who welcomed the guests and in her address paid a tribute to the late spiritual adviser, Rev. Dr. Sinclair and his assistant Rev. Father Egge and all deceased members of the branch. The next number was a song by Messrs. A. Nagel, F. Nagel, W. Ehrmentraut and F. Dietrich; "Reminiscences of Former Days", by Mrs. A. Brueckel; Soprano solo by Miss Agnes O'Connor; "Progress" by Mrs. Elizabeth Christie; tenor solo by Mr. Albert Nagel; "Our Ladies", Mr. Peter A. Vay; song by the Peerless Quartette; Address, Rev. William Stauder; Holy God, sung by the entire audience. The music was furnished by Catherine Carey, at the piano; M. Walsh, clarinet and A. Bastedo, violin.

The pleasant memory of the silver jubilee will linger long in the minds of all who were present at the celebration.

The Powers banquet hall was filled to its capacity on Monday evening, when the combined auxiliaries of the Knights of St. John held their first Pedro and Five Hundred party. Over forty handsome prizes were carried home. The ladies' guest prize was given to Mrs. J. Meintel and the gentlemen's prize to C. A. McNamara. The ladies' committee prize went to Louise Meyers and the gentlemen's committee prize to Mr. Wm. Rosenbach. Fifteen prizes were given to Pedro players and 14 for Five Hundred and 3 prizes were given the score keepers. Music was furnished by Leinen's orchestra and Miss Agnes O'Connor sang several solos. Mrs. Theresa Renner, Supreme President of the Auxiliaries was the guest of honor. A pleasant time was had by all.

St. Boniface.

The masses on Sunday will be as follows at 6, 7:30, 9 and 10:30 o'clock.

Sunday morning at the 7:30 o'clock mass the Young Ladies' Sodality will receive Holy Communion in a body. The members will meet in the Parish Hall at 7:15 o'clock. Conference will be held in the afternoon.

Extra monthly collection will be taken up Sunday at all the masses.

A most interesting and well attended meeting was held at the Parish Hall last Sunday evening by the Holy Name Society.

The Misses Josephine and Theresa Kramer of this parish have returned to the city after a two week's visit to Washington, Philadelphia and New York.

Mr. Edward J. Munding, is spending a two weeks vacation with friends in Utica, N. Y.

The "Newly-weds" social club together with their huddies will hold their first annual May walk Sunday morning. The May party will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Coppinger at Summerville. The members of this well known organization will begin their lakeward journey immediately after the early mass. Upon arrival at the Ontario shores, the "Westonites" will amble to the baseball diamond for a game of "Indoor-Ball-on-the-outs". These thrifty housewives have arranged for a dinner that will answer "The Call of the Appetite".

The Dramatic and Musical entertainment given by the Young Ladies' Sodality at our Parish Hall on Monday evening will go down in history as the banner event of the season. The lady thespians created one long series of laughs, the eruptions of hilarity opening at 8 p. m., and subsided at 12 midnight. Much credit is due the Reverend moderator, Father Schmitt and the committee who successfully carried out the details for the social welfare of the members. A complex and rollicking one act farce entitled "Two Aunts and a Photo" was the opening laugh producer in which Mae Weider, Cath. Kreckel, Ruth Weider and Agnes Jaeger were the cause of a merry round of patter. Miss Josephine Kramer, produced dialect conversation which teemed with heart interest and dramatic action and held the audience in unparalleled interest. The Warbling Trio, Veronica Ritz, Eleanor Ervies and Mildred LeFrois, sang the new ditty, "Come Where the Lillies Bloom" and was well rendered. The finale hilarious delight was the comedy roaring act, "The Reader" in which Mae Weider, Mae Rossiter, Alma Munding, Margaret Kalb, Gertrude Halstrick and Josephine Kramer were the principals and cause of the broken silence. This act rejuvenated the audience and held them with rapt attention and hilarious delight. The mishaps, confusions, agonizing, mental and physical distresses of a self-conscious landlady and a pessimistic old maid in conjunction with a detective and inhabitant from Snake Creek kept the "Reader" in a succession of astounding accidents and ludicrous predicaments that would convulse any theater goer with cyclonic laughter, causing him to hold both sides for fear of exploding from an excess of uproarious merriment. In fact, the entire evening entertainment proved melancholy an impostor, and grim-care a joke, and the event marked a new epoch in amateur dramatics.

The sixth annual banquet of the St. Boniface Young Men's Club was held last Wednesday evening at their Club rooms. The menu for the evening was on the "A La Francaise" style and a large number of the members and friends were in attendance. Joe Bieber acted as Toastmaster and Charles Welch as Roastmaster. Remarks were made by Father Boppel, and "Retrospection" was the topic of Rev. John Bresnahan. Mr. Philip Donnelly, a noted speaker, addressed the members and his subject was "Taking an Interest in Catholic Affairs". Henry Biedenbach distributed the prizes to the champions of the bowling league. William Schenk is President of the club and Rev. George Schmitt is moderator and under their tactful guidance the club is in a most flourishing condition. Music was furnished for this occasion by Halling's orchestra.

St. Marys.

The members of the Holy Name Society will receive Holy Communion in a body at the 7 o'clock mass on Sunday morning. Every member is requested to participate.

Rev. Florian J. Reichert, C.S.S.R., of St. Joseph's church, last Monday evening, delivered an address before the members of the Holy Name Society in the church hall entitled "Microbes in the Social Body and Their Antitoxins." He compared the period that preceded the French revolution, when the microbe of atheism inoculated the social system of France, with the present time, when people in their craze for material pleasures and their lust for material gain are forgetting the ideals of Christianity without which, the speaker declared, no country can long endure.

St. Michael's.

The requiem masses for this week were for Marie Doerr, Frank and Catharine Kessel, Louis Imo, Margaret Hoefen Frank Englert and Teresa Treyer.

Regular meeting of Branch 104 L. C. B. A., will take place Monday evening.

A month's mind requiem mass was read this week for the repose of the soul of Mrs. Dorothea Frisch, at the request of the Ladies' Sodality.

The members of the choir played Pedro last Friday evening. Prizes were won by Miss Martha Klingler, Miss Helen Sprengart and Miss Mary Kausch.

A month's mind requiem mass was read this week for the repose of the soul of Mrs. Elizabeth Hauf, at the request of the Rosary Society.
