NOTABLES IN THE LIMELIGHT

Colonel Frederick W. Sibley, United States Army.

Colonel Frederick W. Sibley of the Fourteenth Cavalry, who was sent in pursuit of the Mexican bandits who recently raided the little settlement of Agua Springs, Tex.

A native of Texas, Colonel Sibley was graduated from the West Point Military Academy in 1874 and was appointed a second lieutenant in the Second Cavalry.

During the war with Spain, Colonel Sibley commanded the headquarters guard of the Fourth Army corps under Major General John Coppinger.

In 1903 he was appointed general of the department of Luzon, Philippines and in 1905 was in command of the troops that suppressed the labor troubles of Cavite and Batangas provinces.

He was selected for detail to the general staff in 1908, but died of typhoid at West Point.

This was agreed upon at a meeting of national committee-men at Trenton. Attorney General J. W. Woodruff of New Jersey nominated the president for his first term and is said to be Mr. Wilson's choice for the honor.

When President Wilson was elected in 1912 he resigned his chief executive of the state and Governor Fielder, who was then president of the senate, by virtue of his office became acting governor.

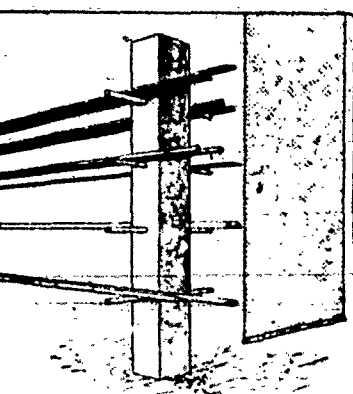

SCIENCE—INDUSTRY.

Potash in Western Utah.

Potash in surprisingly large proportions is present in the brines and muds of the Salt Lake marsh, a sink in the Salt Lake desert about sixty miles west of the southwest edge of Great Salt Lake.

A ROMANCE OF THE OLDEN TIME

Strange Adventures of a Knight of the Road.

My boy, I have sent for you to make a very important announcement. Since the Earl of Ballincorne is dead, childless, you are the rightful heir to that barony.

I wish I could make you understand the difference in this early part of the nineteenth century, when Mr. Stephen was a successful inventor of a steam engine.

My father had but little money when he had been presented to me by the Earl of Ballincorne.

I permitted him to lead me to the subject of the danger of striking the exposed end of the certain waiver of danger.

The words of the Latin name of the word are from the Latin word for a leopard, which means spotted.

Most of the names of one syllable are from Anglo-Saxon. Mouse comes from mys, which is why we have mice.

Two boys and two girls are playing a game of marbles. Each player has his hands behind his back.

Hold a raw egg on end and spin it on a plate or other smooth surface. Quickly place the hand upon it for an instant.

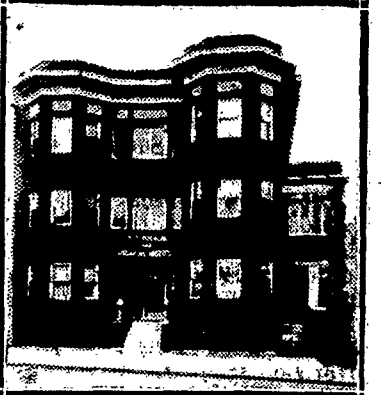

What two animals follow you everywhere? Your cat and your dog.

What always weighs the same, whether larger or smaller? A hole.

Suppose a black cat and a black dog were in a room together.

The world depends for love and joy upon the wind, the sun, the rain, the flowers, the birds, the bees, the butterflies.
