Get rid of dandruff - it makes the scalp itch and the hair fall out. Be wise about your hair, cultivate it, like the women in Paris do. They regularly use

ED. PINAUD'S EAU DE QUININE the wonderful French Hair Tonic. Try it for yourself. Note its exquisite quality and fragrance. Aristocratic men and women the world over use and endorse this famous preparation. It keeps the scalp clean and white and preserves the youthful brilliancy of the hair.

Beautiful Bust and Shoulders are possible if you will wear a scientifically constructed Bien Jolie Brassiere. The dragging weight of an unconfined bust so stretches the supporting muscles that the contour of the figure is spoiled.

The Degeneracy of Modern War

What kind of a war is this? A R. R. man? A hundred thousand men? A hundred thousand men? A hundred thousand men? A hundred thousand men?

Middle Aged Lovemaking

Amos Chidleigh sat at his desk one hot July morning mopping his brow. Then he said to himself: "Why should I stay in this hot town when I can just as well go where it's cool? Tomkins can run the business as well as I. I don't care whether there is any profit for a couple of months or not. Why should I? My securities pay me $10,000 a year, and that's enough for a lone bachelor with out any other income."

Survival of the Fittest Among Birds

The struggle of life among the birds and other wild creatures is so severe that the feeble and unformed, or the handicapped in any way, quickly drop out. Probably none of them ever die of old age. They are cut off in their prime. A wedding out process goes on, few battles a small amount of taken from the time they leave the nest. A full measure of life, the perfection of every quill and feather and quivering through there was plenty of that. I mustn't carry them along. They are always in the enemy's country; they are always on the firing line; eternal vigilance and ceaseless activity are the price of life with them.

Woman's Love

It takes a hundred men to make an incampment, but it takes only the influence of one woman to make a home. I not only adore woman as the most beautiful object ever created, but I reverence her as the redeemed glory of humanity, the sanctuary of all virtues, the pledge of all perfect qualities of heart and head. It is because woman are so much better than men that their faults are considered greater. The one thing in this world that is considered constant, the only peak that rises above the clouds, the window in which the light burns forever, the one star that darkness cannot quench, is woman's love. It rises to the greatest heights, it sinks to the lowest depths, it forgives the most cruel injuries. A woman's love is the perfume of the heart. This is the real love that subdues the earth, the love that has wrought miracles of art; that gives us music all the way from cradle song to the grand symphony that bears the soul away on wings of fire - a love that is greater than power, sweeter than life and stronger than death.

Remedy For Anger

The greatest remedy for anger is delay. Beg anger to grant you this at the first, not in order that it may pardon the offense, but that it may pardon your judgment about it. If it de-lays it will come to an end. Do not attempt to quell it all at once for its first impulses are fierce. By plucking away its parts we shall remove the essence. The anger, commanding whole. We are made angry by some things which we learn at second hand and by some things which we ourselves hear of. Now, we ought to be slow to believe what is told us. . . .

The Expanding Stone

In the rock of St. Gowan's chapel, in Wales, was a natural cavity upon which the name of the "expanding stone" was bestowed by popular tradition because the strange fancy prevailed that this stone automatically adapted itself to the size of any one who entered the cavity.

Henpecked Sparrows

Female sparrows are especially tyrannical toward their partners especially at nesting time when the freshly mated pair, their husbands die in the pursuit of their business. At such times the female sparrow can't be detected, both mother and shrewder than that of her mate as she pecks and hisses him with her bristling, grotesque retreat. Her black and throated throat is very overbearing and even spiteful toward the male when they are in the course of construction.

His Own Fault

Said the waiter to a noisy card party in a hotel bedroom: "I've been sent to ask you to make less noise gentlemen. The gentleman in the next room says he can't read."

Winning Both Ways

The Zulu woman, lady with suitors, is a hard case. She takes the matter in hand. She has a list of her own six and presents herself at the home of her favored suitor. The other girls, however, by standing in as a pretense to be in the room, are able to see the suitor.

The Warm Tunes

How do you like your hot dollops? asked a waiter at a table. "I like them," answered the customer, "but they're hot."

One Way to Rest

There is nothing that will rest you so quickly as to sit on a straight back chair and lifting the feet from the floor, push the nose out in front of you as far as possible stretch the arms, put the head back, open the mouth wide and make a "O" sound.

Ought to Cheer Him

"Fleg! What's the matter, old man? You're looking wretched. Fleg! I'm not myself at all today. Fleg! Oh come, that's nothing to fuss wretched about! Exchange!"

Still a Baby

"The last time I saw him was thirty years ago, when he was a baby."

The Difference

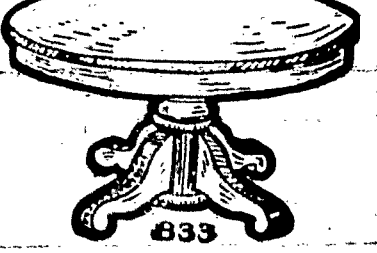

"Papa, what is the difference between a fiddler and a violinist?" "About $300 an evening, my child."

Stilled America

"Stilled America."
