WHILE many a foreign accent which our God can understand is blessing him for home and bread in this free, fertile land—

God, look down upon the land which thou hast loved so well And grant that in unbroken truth her children still may dwell!

July Fourth—Safety First!

"Keep the lid on your box of fireworks," is a suggestion that may save hands and eyes. The explosion of pieces carried by children in their hands or under their arms while setting off others has always been one of the most prolific causes of Fourth of July accidents.

The Equinoctial Storm Fiction. The widespread belief in the existence of an equinoctial storm and Indian summer comes, to a certain extent, under the head of popular superstitions.

During the reign of Charles I. the hoop petticoat was worn only by wives of the lower gentry and by the wives of the citizens.

A Strange Rock Dweller. One of the strangest creatures known to science is the pholias, or boring clam. When still very minute the animal bores into the sandstone ledges at extreme low water, by means of its sharp shell, which is replaced by secretions as it is worn away.

Mexico City is Aged. Mexico City is traditionally nearly 600 years old. It was founded when the Aztecs settled on an island near Lake Texcoco.

The Word Tramway. Tramway is the term applied in Great Britain to all kinds of street railroads, whether using horses, on lines, a cable or electricity.

Encouraging Sign. "How are you getting along with Miss Gadder?" "Oh, first rate."

Doomed. "I like to see a smart, well-dressed woman," said young Joe says, "but I wouldn't want to marry one who knows more than I do."

One Form of It. "Grabbs! They tell me Binks is very much interested in Miss Stubbs."

Sightseeing. On a visit to his grandmother Hairs examined her handsome furniture with interest and then asked, "Grandma, where is the miserable table that papa says you always keep?"

The reputation that is built on cleverness is temporary; that built on character is permanent.

THE SIGNERS.

The Declaration was signed, the die was cast, a new era had been reached in the world's history, a new government had been proclaimed.

Why the Sea Has Pearls. A few weeks ago I was talking with a woman of deep religious sentiment who was in great distress because her very young baby had died before it could be baptized.

Effects of Lying. Lying is a great sin against God, who gave us a tongue to speak the truth and not falsehood.

Christening Boats. The modern custom of christening vessels is without doubt an adaptation of an ancient custom.

First Fourth Was Solemn. The first set celebration of the nation's birthday was imbued with a joyous solemnity.

Playing Safe. "I'm surprised to see you riding in the suburban smoker every day."

Babylonia. The northern part of Babylonia is generally dry during the greater part of the year.

Nothing Rude. "I suppose your daughter will start her scholastic career with some special rudimentary studies?"

His Opposite. "They say people with opposite characteristics make the happiest marriages."

A Great Help. "Did you have any one help you when you were hanging the pictures?"

Some men do not make fortunes for the sake of living, but, blinded by avarice, live for the sake of money only.—Juvenal.

Munchausen.

Perhaps the most voluble liar that ever lived was the Baron Munchausen—that is, the fictionalized baron. The real baron was a kindly soul who lived in Germany and who in no wise deserved the evil reputation that attached to him through the use of his name in a series of highly colored adventures that appeared in print in London in 1785.
