The graduation and annual commencement of our scholars took place at our parish hall on last Thursday and Friday evening, before a large audience on both occasions. The opening of the evening's program was a symphony composed of pianists with violins, bells and mandolins picked from the parish talent. The feastday spelling class was well rendered by the members of the various grades. The between acts, musicals and skits were of a good and choice variety and special mention must be made of the rollicking and interesting 5 act drama, "The Coming of Geraldine". The clever manner in which the pupils acted their respective parts is a credit to the parish and reflects on the patience of the Sisters of this parish who have taken such deep interest in drilling and directing the production to such a big success. The graduating class numbered 29 and to these pupils diplomas and class pins were awarded on Friday evening by our pastor, Father Boppel. The Valedictory, "In God We Trust" was delivered by Benedict Miller and Sevilla Koch.
