A splendid short sermon is found in this paragraph taken from the announcement of their quarterly Holy Communion sent to members of the Holy Name Society of St. Mary's church by the spiritual director, Rev. Simon Fitzsimons, M. R.

Discouraging.

While England and the English are lauding themselves as the only "apostles of humanity" and demanding that all the world see and their efforts to eliminate the unspeakable Germans and Turks.

Work of the Monks.

We are accustomed to hearing how the monks aided civilization and literature in the Philip-pines, in Mexico and elsewhere.

famous University of Louvain in America. Since his arrival on our shores, Professor Essen has written a history of Belgium in the course of which he pays this tribute to the monks for their part in the development and civilization of Belgium.

Each monastery became a kind of model farm, where the population of the neighborhood could learn the best agricultural methods. In the monastery, too, they could find physicians who knew how to take care of the sick.

Prince of Church.

The non-Catholic secular New York "Sun" is an ardent admirer of Cardinal Gibbons. Here is the splendid tribute it pays to his Eminence's civic worth: Cardinal Gibbons clings to good sense, sound judgment and correct standards obstinately.

Appreciation.

Two of the benefactors of Notre Dame University are non-Catholic's. Max Pam, of Chicago, a Jew set up the only endowment held by Notre Dame, when, four years ago, he established the Notre Dame School of Journalism.

tion headed by Governor Ferris, which was then studying some of the precious manuscripts of the University archives which bear upon pioneer Michigan history. Dr. Wood is himself the possessor of the best collection bearing upon the history of the Northwest Territory, of which subject he is an enthusiastic student.

Neither Charles E. Hughes nor Woodrow Wilson will be the next Mr. Wilson's term will expire on Friday night, March 3d. March 4th of the national spirit of Belgium.

Prince of Church.

In the sudden death of James A. Reilly, editor and manager of the Norman E. Mack's "National Monthly", American journalism loses a shining light.

Discouraging.

According to the Masonic Chronicle, neither Mr. Wilson nor Mr. Hughes is a Mason - yet.

Appreciation.

The American Federation of Catholic Societies has a record of splendid achievements in the way of upholding truth and decency.
