Interesting Budget of Happenings Gathered by Our City Reporter

St. Mary's

The Confraternity of Mary and the women and girls of the parish will receive holy communion at the 7 o'clock mass on Sunday morning.

The regular monthly school collection will be taken up at all the masses next Sunday immediately after the regular collection.

On Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock St. Mary's team will cross bats with St. Monica's at the South Park grounds.

The Young Men's Association of the parish held their first meeting in some time last Wednesday evening at which several important matters were discussed. A large number of members were present.

Holy Family

Sunday evening the quarterly meeting of the Christian Mother Society will be held.

On Tuesday the feast of the Assumption, the masses were at 6.30, 6.30, 8.30, 9.45 and 10.45 o'clock solemn high mass. In the evening at 8 o'clock vespers were held.

The funeral of Francis Spahn was held on Monday morning.

St. Francis Xavier

The requiem masses this week were for Louise Knittle, and for Margaret and John Herbst.

Regular monthly extra collection will be taken up at all masses Sunday.

Corpus Christi

The requiem masses this week were for Mrs. Miller and Kathryn Lynch requested by the Rosary Society.

Next Tuesday evening, Aug. 22nd the regular meeting of Br. 139, C.M.B.A., Council 40, C.R. & B.A., and Br. 251, L.C.B.A., will be held.

At the last meeting of Br. 251, L.C.B.A., the sympathy of the branch was extended to Miss Mosher and Mrs. Riddell on the death of their sister, Mrs. Ernest.

The school collection will be taken up at all the masses next Sunday.

William V. Moore died Monday morning at his home, No. 413 Alexander street, aged 52 years. For eighteen years he was an official in the sales department and traveling auditor of the Bausch & Lomb Optical Company. He leaves his wife, a son, Vincent S. Moore, and two sisters, Mrs. Fred A. Hardy and Miss Valencia Moore, both of New York.

Mr. Moore was born in New York on October 30, 1863, and was educated in public and high schools in that city. After graduation he entered the optical business and represented a French concern at its American branch in Maiden Lane. In 1889 he married Miss May B. Schuhart, of this city, the ceremony being performed here. Mr. and Mrs. Moore went to New York to live.

In 1898 Mr. Moore accepted an offer from the Bausch & Lomb Optical Company and he had charge of sales at first, but later became traveling auditor, his duties taking him to all parts of the country. The company and the sales department have adopted expressions of condolence.

The funeral took place Wednesday morning from this church. Interment was made at Holy Sepulcher cemetery.

Blessed Sacrament

William A. Heindl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Heindl, of Lowell street, and Miss Ruth Davis Wilber, daughter of Mrs. J. Frank Wilber, of Pembroke St., were married in this church at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning. A nuptial mass was celebrated by Rev. William T. Wilber, of Batavia, uncle of the bride, who performed the ceremony. The following priests were in the sanctuary: Rev. William V. Gruenauer, of Penfield; Rev. John Burke, of Albion; Rev. Albert Sullivan, of Batavia; Rev. Dennis Lane, Rev. Jos. Baierl, of St. Bernard's Seminary; Rev. T. Francis Hoefen and Rev. Thomas Connors, pastor of this church.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Josiah F. Wilber. A sister, Helen Jean Wilber, was bridesmaid. The groom was attended by his brother, Charles F. Heindl. John J. Kinney and Charles H. Mallon were ushers.

The bride wore a gown of tulle and a veil of tulle caught with pearls. She carried a bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. The gown of the bridesmaid was of rainbow chiffon. She carried a bouquet of sunburst roses.

A wedding breakfast served at the home of the groom, was attended by forty relatives of the couple. Mr. and Mrs. Heindl left for an eastern trip.

St. Andrew's Church

Wednesday evening marked the grand opening of the big Lawn Pete on the church ground, Portland Ave. and Durnam St. There are many attractive booths with equally attractive articles for sale and a good program of entertainment has been prepared for every night. Saturday afternoon there will be another matinee for the children and in the evening the final closing will take place.

Next Sunday will be regular communion Sunday for the St. Rita's Young Ladies' Sodality.

A requiem high mass was said this week for Wigbert Pfeffer. Friday evening the L.C.B.A. held their regular meeting.

A. O. H. to Celebrate.

The Ancient Order of Hibernians will hold their 26th annual picnic and field day at Johnson's Grove, on Labor Day, Sept. 4th. The Friends of Irish Freedom are asked to co-operate as the proceeds will go to the widows and orphans of the men who in the late struggle laid down their lives for the cause of Irish Freedom.

O'Connell's Own Band will furnish music. The committee in charge with Owen P. Smith as chairman are planning to make this the greatest success in the history of the Organization. A novel program of sports have been arranged by the committee in charge including a base ball game between Division 2 and 7. A Gaelic football game between the Harps of Rochester and Emmets of Syracuse and a hurling contest between Buffalo and Syracuse.

This will be a real Irish Field Day. Don't fail to be on hand as a good time is promised to all.
