and in twenty-seven years old. His first professional job was with the outfit known as the Athletics. He joined the Athletics that year and was farmed to Milwaukee. He later joined the league. He was traded to the Athletics in 1921 and has been with the club ever since. When he is right he is the fastest man on the team.

The Browns of St. Louis.

Fleider Jones has not won the American league pennant this year but there is no denying the fact that his new St. Louis Browns are the most interesting club in baseball. After following around, some of the Athletics they have become pennant contenders. There are many people who believe that Fleider Jones is going to win the pennant. They think that his present Browns are more powerful than his famous White Sox of yore. George Sisler, Charlie Pratt, Armand Marsans and Bert Shotton the latter are a faster-and-hotter-hitting aggregation than the old Sox.

Light as Chaff

A slight misunderstanding. The girl's father, a great stout, old fellow, came into the parlor at 10 with his watch in his hand. The young man was standing on a hair straightening machine. "What time is it?" asked the girl's father. "It is 10:10," replied the young man. "What time is it?" asked the girl's father. "It is 10:10," replied the young man. ## Matter Enough

I just stood in the kitchen at the door and saw the "she" said Mrs. Newswid. "Why, madam?" answered the girl. "That was the best time I ever saw you," said the mother. "Why, indeed? Why it is a tough my husband couldn't get the biscuits I made with it."

A Blind One at the Phone

A large firm in Aberdeen recently engaged an office boy a raw country youth. It was part of his duties to attend to the telephone in his master's absence. When first called upon to answer the bell, in reply to the usual query, "Are you there?" he nodded assent. Again the question came, and still again and each time the boy gave an answering nod. When the question came for the fourth time, however, the boy, losing his temper, roared through the telephone, "Man, a' ye blind? I've been noddin' me head off for the last half hour!"

A Wise One

Baker—Why is it that you always want to take your vacation before any of the other men in the establishment have been away? Jones—So there will be no chance for any of the rest of them to come back and urge me to go where they got atung.

Athletes to Compete in Sweden.

It has fallen to the lot of Ted More and Jo Loomis to represent the United States in a special meet arranged by the Swedish National Gymnastic and Sport association to be held at Stockholm, Sweden, the week of Oct. 15.

Secretary Fred W. Roubien of the A. U. will select the third member of the party at the conclusion of the national championships at Newark, N. J., Sept. 9. The man who, in his opinion, accomplishes the best individual performance or performances gets the pick. It is entirely within the jurisdiction of Mr. Roubien to pick the miniature team.

The lucky trio will sail for Stockholm Sept. 28 on board the steamship Oscar II. They are due to arrive in that city Oct. 9. This will give them four or five days in which to wear off their sea legs and train a little. Competition will most likely begin Oct. 15. The return trip is slated for Oct. 19 and the boys will be back in New York City by the 24th.

Ten or Six tied.

The ten or six tie of the Chicago Cubs is not the best of the world. The Cubs are tied with the St. Louis Browns and the Philadelphia Athletics. The Cubs are tied with the St. Louis Browns and the Philadelphia Athletics. The Cubs are tied with the St. Louis Browns and the Philadelphia Athletics.

Jimmy Johnston of the Brooklynians

The Brooklynians club has a number of scouts. Each year they send up to the league a list of recruits. The most promising youngster the club has picked up since Jack Dumbert came in Jimmy Johnston. Jimmy was picked up by Charles H. Ebbets himself. Johnston has played great ball for the Dodgers outfield this year. He has played a fine defensive game and has hit well and on the basis of speed and judgment. Many think him to be the most valuable of the Dodgers' outer gardeners.
