Inquisitive Girls. Bessie I almost hate Carrie Dyer! She asks such impudent questions, you know. I was telling her that Frank Barnes had asked me to marry him.

A BALKY LOVER

By ELINOR MARSH

Mr. and Mrs. Harkaway's daughter, Maria, was the one being on earth who absorbed their interest. All went well till Maria's affections became centered on a young man, and the young man was so slow in proposing that Mrs. Harkaway feared some other girl would steal him away from her daughter.

"I do think," said Mrs. Harkaway, "that young fellow who is coming to see Maria should either propose to her or be told not to come to see her any more."

"Have you known that he hasn't proposed to her?" asked her husband. "Because when I went into the parlor last evening after he had gone I asked her and she said he hadn't."

"What do you suppose he is waiting for?" "I wish you would let my daughter know what she is waiting for."

"I wish you would let my daughter know what she is waiting for," said Mrs. Harkaway. "I wish you would let my daughter know what she is waiting for," said Mrs. Harkaway.

Ruover Shoe Heels Weaken the Ankles

There are two very good reasons why the heels of shoes should be kept straight. The more important one is that worn heels make it impossible to set the feet straight in walking, and for this reason cause a deformity of the feet.

"That's a good thing," said the man. "I wish you would let my daughter know what she is waiting for," said Mrs. Harkaway.

"I wish you would let my daughter know what she is waiting for," said Mrs. Harkaway. "I wish you would let my daughter know what she is waiting for," said Mrs. Harkaway.

STRATAGEMS OF WAR: Clever Tricks by Which Two Chilean Warships Were Sunk

Between the years 1879 and 1884 the republics of Peru and Chile were at war, and although the Peruvians were eventually discomfited, they displayed great adroitness in naval matters.

"Soon after the Chilean fleet had settled down to the blockade of Callao there appeared in the bay one morning a large barge of fruit that had obviously gone adrift from the shore. The Peruvians put out in boats and steam pinnaces to bring the barge back, and the Chileans, seeing what was happening, also sent out pinnaces and boats to intercept and capture the drifting barge."

"After pulling up to the barge which was being towed by the Peruvians, the Chileans had it over to be sure that there was no dynamite in it. The barge was a large one, and it was found that it contained a large quantity of dynamite. The Chileans then set it on fire and it was sunk."

OBSERVATIONS. It takes a smart man to know when to hold his tongue. The more condescended the man the harder it tries to enlighten the world.

Marshmallow Dandy. The half a pound of marshmallows that a child eats will do them more good than a pound of whipped cream and a pound of sugar.

The Children's. The Dove and the Ant. A little ant was trying to drink some water from the brook and fell in. He would have been drowned if a dove had not broken off a twig and dropped it into the water.

A Riddle Answered. "Sambro, why are answers like fishes?" "I don't neither meddle wid de dub feet."

In the Sand? Oh, won't you come and play with me down beside the deep blue sea? We'll be safe upon the land while we're digging in the sand.

Play Corner. Game of Trades. For this game two dealers, one the master and the other the workman choose sides. The workman then selects some trade and tells the first and last letter to the master, such as b-h-blacksmith.

Beheadings. 1. Whole I satisfy, beheaded I am comfort. 2. Whole I am worthless, beheaded I am happy. 3. Whole I am a froth, beheaded I am a bubble.

Vain Repetition. "I don't mind learning how to spell, and forgraphy is very well. And sums, although they're horrid, you've got to do 'em anyway. I'm quite sure, is only waste of time."

Complicated but Easy. How do you get a man to do what you want him to do? You can't get a man to do what you want him to do unless you give him a reason.

Montreal's Cathedral. The great cathedral in Montreal is the Cathedral of Notre Dame, which next to St. Peter's in Rome is the largest church building in the world.

A Lightning Flash. A flash of lightning lights up the ground for one or two feet of a second, yet it seems to last for so much longer. Why? Because as the impression reaches the portion of the eye for a fraction of a second of 1/24,000,000, longer than the flash lasts.

Unsolved Mystery. "Pa, how do you know Methusalem was the first man, don't they?" "Yes, my son."

Cruel. "Oh, he says he thinks I'm the nicest girl in town. Shall I ask him to call? Sarah—No, dear, let him keep on thinking so.—Town Topics.
