

The World's Greatest Judge.

If greatness consists of great ability lined with great opportunity, then we must pass unchallenged the declaration that Marshall is the greatest judge the English states have known.

Standing before his portrait in company with a distinguished foreigner and an American, we could not but consider him the greatest of our countrymen.

Applauding the great statesman, we said in substance that the qualities of Marshall's character had been surpassed only by the character of another European of an earlier time.

How to Handle

The "How to Handle" series is a most useful and interesting series of articles. It covers a wide range of subjects, from the care of table linen to the treatment of various ailments.

Quick Work

"Married a telephone girl, you say?" "Just so. The telephone was his first love, and she was his number one."

Care of Table Linen

Do not let linen become too soiled because hard rubbing is likely to break the fibers. Remove all stains before the linen is to be washed. The stains come out much better if removed as soon as they appear.

The Children's Play Corner

Mexico's Spikes Mount in a Curious Geological Feature. One of the most interesting features of the Mexican landscape is the presence of volcanic spikes.

It is a remarkable uplift of nature which has the appearance of a mountain range. The spikes are of various heights and are scattered across the landscape.

FLUNG UP FROM THE SEA.

Birth of the Bogosho Group of the Aouton Islands. The first of the Bogosho group of islands was born in the year 1882.

The island was born in a volcanic eruption. The lava flow reached the sea and cooled, forming a new island.

THE OLD RED COW

The old red cow was the dairy cow of the family. It was a fine specimen of the breed and was much valued by the farmer.

An Author's Old Acquaintance

The author's old acquaintance was a friend of his childhood. They had not seen each other for many years, but they were reunited in a surprising way.

Gen's and Annette

Gen's and Annette were a young couple who were in love. They were planning to get married, but they were faced with some difficulties.

The Romans Dressed For Dinner

The Romans dressed for dinner in a very different way from the way we do today. They wore long, flowing robes and had their hair styled in a particular way.

Lawyer's Way

The lawyer's way was a very peculiar way of doing things. It was full of technicalities and legal jargon, and it was often difficult to understand.

Took the Small One

The judge looked over at the prisoner and said, "You are charged with taking the small one."

There has never been an invasion of an enemy's country that the invader has not made willing captives of a number of the daughters of the region. During the war between the states many a Union soldier wooed and won a Southern girl whose antagonism against the Union armies was very bitter.

Lieutenant Joseph Molina, a young Spanish officer just out of his teens, was during the last years of the last century sent with his command to Cuba. Those were the days when General Weyler was attempting to crush the Cuban revolution by exhaustion and imprisonment, and both the and Spanish soldiers were hated by the down-trodden Cubans.

Lieutenant Molina was encamped with his regiment in a sugar plantation owned by one Leandro Reyes. The officers were received at the plantation with a very friendly and cordiality. Reyes did not care to antagonize them though he was a patriot.

Molina's regiment was ordered to Santiago there was a sad parting between the two during which they gave away and told her lover that if Cuba achieved her independence he might come back and ask her again.

When Molina returned to Spain he took with him the daughter of the Cuban minister to the United States.
