

The World's Greatest Judge.

If greatness consists of great ability lined with great opportunity, then we must pass unhesitatingly the declaration that Marshall is the greatest judge the Anglo-American states have ever had.

Standing before his portrait in company with a distinguished foreigner and an American, we could not but consider him the greatest of our countrymen.

Applauding the late Justice Brandeis, we said in substance that the high qualities of Marshall's character had been surpassed and had been equaled by the late Justice Brandeis.

Portrait of Mrs. Anthony J. Drexel

LIKE AN ANCIENT FORT. Mexico's Spikes Mount in a Curious Geological Fashion.

One of the most interesting features of the world of Mrs. Anthony J. Drexel is her portrait. It is a portrait that is like an ancient fort.

It is a remarkable uplift of nature which has the appearance of a tower of a natural fortification. The spikes form a natural battlement that makes the mountain appear from a distance like some ancient fort.
