It's Time for a Fall Overcoat

Not necessary for us to remind you—one sniff of the air on these frosty October mornings and evenings is sufficient to tell you that it's time to get into an overcoat.

You are probably a little particular about your coat—most men are—and want something that has snap and style to it as well as warmth and comfort and at the same time doesn't run into a whole lot of money. Don't think you are the exception in this respect—far from it—you're just like ninety-five per cent. of the men. That is why we have set ourselves the task of providing just such a coat for you, and have succeeded.

"The Piccadilly," our new overcoat for men, measures up to all these requirements. We have taken your own specifications and made these coats accordingly. In quality of material, workmanship, tailoring, we doubt if their equal can be found anywhere at the price we offer them—$14.85.

Three-button, single breasted front

Straight box effect back

Collar, cuffs and bottom triple stitched

Patch pockets with overhanging flap.

Come in and take a look at these "Piccadillies" before you select the new overcoat.
