

San Hi-Cuts for Boys' Hard Knocks.

These are good-looking shoes, but are made for hard service rather than for "style." They will "wear like iron" and THE BOYS LIKE THEM.

Boys' Sizes, 2 1/2 to 1 1/2 $3.00
 Youth's Sizes, 1 to 2 $2.75
 Little Boys' Sizes, 10 to 13 1/2 $2.50

Last year these shoes were so popular that we couldn't get enough to fill the demand. Those who come now are assured of getting them at the very low prices shown above.

ST. MART'S

It was with sincere regret that the parishioners heard the announcement last Sunday morning that Rev. Father Cameron, who at one time was connected with the church, was seriously ill. Let us hope and pray for his speedy recovery.

On Wednesday and Thursday evenings, Nov. 8th and 9th, "A Trainer's Romance", a four-act comedy was presented at the church hall, under the auspices of the Confraternity of Mary, for the benefit of the Sisters of Mercy. At 8 o'clock practically every seat in the hall was occupied and from the liberal applause received from spectators convinced those who took part that their efforts were appreciated. Following is the cast of characters: Billy Bender - A Half-Back, Rupert Maloney; Peter Stuyvesant - AM. P. H. D., Pres. of College, William Schlueter; Hiram Bender - Pres. P. D. Q. Road, Clarence West; Larry O'Brien - A Trainer, Herbert Bohrer; Hon. Silas Perkins, of Squashville, Joseph Lucy; "Bub" Perkins - A Freshman, Don McChesney; Jack Barry - The Football Coach, Joseph Shale; "Cap." Taylor - A Post-Graduate tutor, Francis Dwyer; Silent McGuire - Center Rush, Julian Oppenheimer; "Stub" Chester - A Hustling Undergraduate, Joseph Boland; Tommy Patterson - Right Tackle, Leo Fleming; "Hen" Tucker - Village Constable, John McFarlin; Harry Sanders, George Spillane; Dick Allis, John Sullivan; Jimsey Cooper, James Sullivan; Jane Stuyvesant - College President's Daughter, Dorothy Marakle; Betty Turner - An Athletic Girl, Loretta Connor; Violet McCarthy - A Popular Waitress, Mabel McCourt; Mrs. Darcy - A Professional Chaperon, Mae Cronin and others.

While all took their parts exceptionally well, special mention should be made of the excellent manner in which the Misses Dorothy Marakle, Loretta Connor, Mabel McCourt, and Messrs. Joseph Shale and Herbert Bohrer took their parts. Miss Bertha Meyer's Orchestra furnished the music.

The Confraternity of Mary desires to thank the following for courtesies extended: Weis & Fisher Co.; Geo. Boucher; Wheeler-Green Electric Co.; Lyeum Theater; Rochester Costume Co.; Howe & Rogers Co., and E. W. Edwards & Son.
